Distributed Leadership Alma Harris, 2009-03-17 Alma Harris The idea of school leadership is currently preoccupied with the idea of distributed leadership Few ideas it seems have provoked as much attention debate and controversy Whatever your position on distributed leadership and you cannot fail to have one it is irrefutable that distributed leadership has become the leadership idea of the moment Yet it is an idea that can be traced back as far as the mid 20s and possibly earlier So why the interest Part of the answer can be found in a move away from theorizing and empirical enquiry focused on the single leader This shift has undoubtedly been fuelled by structural changes within schools and across school systems that have resulted in alternative models or forms of leadership practice Evidence highlights how those occupying formal leadership positions are increasingly recognizing the limitations of existing structural arrangements to secure organizational growth and transformation Fullan et al 2007 Harris et al 2008 Chapman et al 2008 As a consequence many heads and principals are actively restructuring realigning and redesigning leadership practice in their school Harris 2008 While the terminology to describe such changes varies the core principle is one of extending or sharing leadership practice While scholars have long argued for the need to move beyond those at the top of organizations in order to examine leadership Barnard 1968 Katz and Kahn 1966 until relatively recently much of the school leadership literature has tended to focus upon the head or the principal

Statistics of Education Great Britain. Department for Education and Skills, 2006 Features a range of outcome indicators for children who have been continuously looked after for at least 12 months in England covering the year ending 30 September 2005 This work presents findings that include that there were 44 700 looked after children during this period compared to 45 000 at 30 September 2004 Primary History, 2004 Fertility, Living Arrangements, Care and Mobility John Stillwell, Ernestina Coast, Dylan Kneale, 2009-06-12 Many parts of the world are experiencing rapid demographic restructuring resulting in an ageing population with increasingly significant work and care pressures on cohorts less able or willing to provide support This book examines some of the important trends that have underpinned reductions in fertility including delayed child bearing and increased childlessness It demonstrates how relationships between partners have resulted in new living arrangements with changing attitudes from marriage to co habitation as the social norm and it considers the health and well being for particular at risk groups such as the elderly and stepparents as well as aspects of mobility such as household migration and commuting to school The book brings together a series of studies that all involve quantitative analyses of secondary data from censuses surveys or administrative records The trends and patterns reported provide new and interesting insights into behaviour of the household and the roles of adults and children and point to questions of critical importance for practitioners and policy makers The Times Index, 2008 Indexes the Times and its supplements Third validation compendium report Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2006-12-19 In 2004 the Government announced 110 Public Service Agreement PSA targets for 17 Departments covering the period 2005 08 PSA targets express the priority outcomes that Departments are seeking to achieve nationally and internationally and cover key aspects of the Government's social economic and environmental policy. Large sums of public money are devoted to the programmes designed to deliver them. This NAO report contains the detailed results of its examination of the data systems used by six government departments to monitor and report progress against their 2005-08 PSA targets covering a total of 65 data systems. The six Departments are the Cabinet Office, the Department for Culture, Media and Sport, the Department for Education and Skills, the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, the Ministry of Defence and HM Treasury. Findings include that 75 per cent of the data systems used are broadly appropriate but less than half of these were fully fit for purpose. Most required some action to strengthen measurement or reporting arrangements. A companion volume HCP 127 I session 2006-07 ISBN 0102944040 is available separately which contains the NAO's summarised findings.

Stimulating Non-Fiction Writing! Emma Hughes-Evans, Simon Brownhill, 2019-01-25. Stimulating Non Fiction Writing Inspiring Children Aged 7-11 offers innovative and exciting ways to engage children in non-fiction writing, giving professionals the confidence and practical advice that they need to support children in producing quality non-fiction texts in the classroom. Packed full of interesting ideas, resource suggestions and practical activities, the book explores the various ways professionals can purposefully encourage child authors to develop their non-fiction writing skills. Tried and tested resources, Gold star tips and practical suggestions are underpinned by research-informed teaching strategies and academic information to strengthen professional practice associated with the teaching of non-fiction writing. By taking a stimulating approach to each text type and linking activities to known texts and stimuli, the book offers differentiated advice for working with children in Lower and Upper Key stage 2. Chapters consider text types that include Instructions, Persuasive texts, Non-chronological reports, Correspondence texts, Discussion texts. This new text is the perfect guide for inspiring children aged 7-11 in the classroom and will energise and enrich classroom provision and practice by being an essential resource for teachers and students on teacher training courses.

The Changing Role of Media in the English Curriculum Steve Connolly, 2021-10-11. This book analyses and explains the role that the study of media texts has played in English curricula across the last 30 years, exploring the implications of these changes for teachers and students. Presenting a documentary analysis of the key evidence surrounding the history of media texts within English, the book focuses on how media has been characterized in the subject of English in the UK National Curriculum while also reflecting on the position of media texts in other English-speaking National Curricula such as Australia and New Zealand. It dissects the changing role of media texts in English, considering media texts which range from newspapers and print adverts, films and TV through to digital web-based and multimodal texts. The book charts the history of this part of English and considers what it can tell us about the nature of curriculum and English education more broadly. Speaking to important issues of curriculum in education, this book will be key
