Positioning Women in Conflict Studies Hardis Family Assistant Professor of Government Sabrina Karim, Sabrina Karim, Associate Professor of International Affairs Daniel W Hill Jr, Daniel W. Hill (Jr.), 2024 In Positioning Women in Conflict Studies Sabrina Karim and Daniel W Hill Jr re evaluate the literature on gender international politics and conflict to reveal that the term gender equality is often used to refer to four distinct concepts women's inclusion women's rights harm to women and beliefs about women's roles They develop original measures for each of these concepts and examine their impact on inter state war onset intra state conflict onset state repression human rights violations and terrorism Overall Karim and Hill demonstrate how the conceptualization and measurement of gender equality and women's status is critical in understanding how to reduce political violence globally The Legacy of Jullien's Work for Comparative Education Charl Wolhuter, 2020-06-09 Comparative and International Education is a seemingly infinite field and it has always tested new frontiers since it was launched as a field of scholarly enquiry 200 years ago by the vision of Marc Antoine Jullien The philanthropic mission which Jullien spelled out for the field remains its most noble The contributions to this book look afresh at this mission within the context of twenty first century globalised society while also highlighting and re assessing other sources in the field This book was originally published as a special issue of Compare A Journal of Comparative and International Education

Reimagining Social Medicine from the South Abigail H. Neely, 2021-07-12 In Reimagining Social Medicine from the South Abigail H Neely explores social medicine's possibilities and limitations at one of its most important origin sites the Pholela Community Health Centre PCHC in South Africa The PCHC's focus on medical and social factors of health yielded remarkable success And yet South Africa's systemic racial inequality hindered health center work and witchcraft illnesses challenged a program rooted in the sciences To understand Pholela's successes and failures Neely interrogates the social in social medicine She makes clear that the social sciences the PCHC used failed to account for the roles that Pholela's residents and their environment played in the development and success of its program At the same time the PCHC's reliance on biomedicine prevented it from recognizing the impact on health of witchcraft illnesses and the social relationships from which they emerged By rewriting the story of social medicine from Pholela Neely challenges global health practitioners to recognize the multiple worlds and actors that shape health and healing in Africa and beyond
