Language and Reality Sydney Lamb, 2006-09-30 Presents the selected writings of Professor Sydney M Lamb including six works and several which have been re worked for publication This book includes papers offering insight into the man behind the pioneering approach to linguistics that might be summed up as linguistics to the beat of a different drummer

Language and Reality Sydney Lamb, 2004-06-15 Language and Reality presents selected writings of Professor Sydney M Lamb including six new works and several which have been re worked for publication here Although he is a leading figure in linguistic science many of the papers are far from well known some of them having appeared in more obscure venues of publication and for the most part unavailable to the wider linguistic community The book is divided into four parts the first of which includes papers offering insight into the man behind this pioneering approach to doing linguistics that might best be summed up as linguistics to the beat of a different drummer The papers in Part II explore the theoretical origins of Lamb s ideas about language that have often been described as ahead of their time Part III includes more recent writings outlining work done in Neurocognitive Linguistics Studies of the interconnectedness of language with other kinds of human experience and with history are presented in Part IV Systemic Functional Linguistics Lise Fontaine, Tom Bartlett, Gerard

O'Grady, 2013-12-19 This stimulating volume provides fresh perspectives on choice a key notion in systemic functional linguistics Bringing together a global team of well established and up and coming systemic functional linguists it shows how the different senses of choice as process and as product are interdependent and how they operate at all levels of language Taking an interdisciplinary approach it covers a range of linguistic viewpoints informed by evolutionary theory psychology sociology and neuroscience to produce a complex but unifying account of the issues This book offers a critical examination of choice and is ideal for students and researchers working in all areas of functional linguistics as well as cognitive linguistics second language acquisition neurolinguistics and sociolinguistics A Discourse Analysis of Habakkuk David J.

Fuller, 2019-10-21 Habakkuk is unique amongst the prophetic corpus for its interchange between YHWH and the prophet Many open research questions exist regarding the identities of the antagonists throughout and the relationships amongst the different sections of the book In A Discourse Analysis of Habakkuk David J Fuller develops a model for discourse analysis of Biblical Hebrew within the framework of Systemic Functional Linguistics The analytical procedure is carried out on each pericope of the book separately and then the respective results are compared in order to determine how the successive speeches function as responses to each other and to better understand changes in the perspectives of the various speakers throughout Discourse Studies in Public Communication Eliecer Crespo-Fernández, 2021-04-15 The collection of articles in

Discourse Studies in Public Communication illustrates that public communication is a fascinating evidence based storehouse for research in discourse analysis The contributions to this volume in the spheres of political rhetoric gender and sexuality and corporate and academic communication provide good evidence of contemporary social structure social phenomena and social issues In this way following the parameters of different analytical frameworks critical discourse analysis cognitive metaphor theory appraisal theory multimodality etc the contributors address not only the linguistic aspects of texts but also and more importantly the cultural and cognitive dimensions of public communication in a range of real life communicative contexts and kinds of discourse Although the volume is addressed first and foremost to readers with diverse interests in English linguistics it may also prove valuable to scholars in other non linguistic research fields like communication studies social theory political science or psychology
