Summers with Lincoln James A. Percoco, 2009-08-25 A journey across America revealing the history of how seven of these monuments came to be and what they mean to us today The Washington Times Across the country in the middle of busy city squares and hidden on quiet streets there are nearly two hundred statues erected in memory of Abraham Lincoln No other American has ever been so widely commemorated A few years ago Jim Percoco a history teacher with a passion for both Lincoln and public sculpture set off to see what he might learn about some of these monuments what they meant to their creators and to the public when they were unveiled and what they mean to us today The result is a fascinating chronicle of four summers on the road looking for Lincoln stories in statues of marble and bronze Percoco selects seven emblematic works among them Thomas Ball's Emancipation Group erected east of the Capitol in 1876 with private funds from African Americans and dedicated by Frederick Douglass Augustus Saint Gaudens's majestic Standing Lincoln of 1887 in Chicago Paulanship's 1932 Lincoln the Hoosier Youth in Fort Wayne Indiana and Gutzon Borglum's 1911 Seated Lincoln struggling with the pain of leadership beckoning visitors to sit next to him on his metal bench in Newark New Jersey At each stop Percoco chronicles the history of the monument spotlighting its artistic social political and cultural origins His descriptions draw fresh meaning from mute stone and cold metal raising provocative questions not just about who Lincoln might have been but about what we've wanted him to be in the monuments we've built

Looking for Lincoln in Illinois Bryon C. Andreasen, 2015-10-05 This richly illustrated book relates more than thirty stories that show how the lives of Lincoln and the Mormons intersected and expands on some of the storyboards on the Looking for Lincoln Story Trail The book's keyed maps historic photos and descriptions of events connect the stories to their physical locations

Looking for Lincoln in Illinois Bryon C. Andreasen, 2015-03-31 Winner ISHS Certificate of Excellence Award 2016 Presenting fifty Abraham Lincoln stories some familiar and beloved some fresh and unexpected Looking for Lincoln in Illinois Lincoln's Springfield is a carefully researched richly illustrated guide to the Springfield Illinois locations on the Looking for Lincoln Story Trail Created by the Looking for Lincoln Heritage Coalition this trail consists of more than two hundred illustrated storyboards posted at sites of significance to Lincoln's life and career across fifty two communities in Illinois The storyboards connect Lincoln related tales to the geographical locations where they occurred giving visitors and now readers a tour of the social and cultural landscape of Lincoln's nineteenth century world while revealing the very human Lincoln known by friends and associates This book celebrates the trail as a rich historical resource featuring the original storyboards produced for Springfield and including twelve additional stories and more than 150 illustrations Engaging stories in the book bring Lincoln s Springfield to life Lincoln created controversy with his Temperance Address which he delivered in a church on Fourth Street in February 1842 He unexpectedly married Mary Todd in her sister s home on the edge of Springfield later that year The Lincolns sons used to harness dogs and cats to small wagons and drive them around the dirt streets of town When Lincoln visited his dentist he applied his own chloroform because the practice of analgesia was not yet common He reportedly played the ball game Fives in a downtown alley while waiting for news of his presidential nomination And boxing heavyweight champion John C Heenan visited the presidential candidate in October 1860 Through texts historic photographs and images and maps including one keyed to the story locations in downtown Springfield readers of this fascinating volume are invited to imagine social and cultural landscapes that have been lost in time

Lincoln, Inc. Jackie Hogan,2011-10-16 From Lincoln themed cocktails and waffle parlors to high tech museums and steamy romance novels the image of Abraham Lincoln so permeates the national imagination that we now find him in the unlikelyst of places In Lincoln Inc Jackie Hogan examines the uses and abuses of the sixteenth president in the United States today The book takes readers on a journey through the little white lies of Lincoln tourism and offers a front row seat as the martyr president is invoked in heated political debates over such issues as homosexuality abortion and the war on terror Readers enter classrooms that use an idealized Honest Abe to Lincolnize American schoolchildren And readers step into the alternate universe of Lincoln fiction that transforms the Rail Splitter by turns into a hapless time traveler a sentimental cyborg an axe wielding zombie slayer or a frontier heart throb But Lincoln Inc is more than a tour through the thriving Lincoln industry today Whether in staid biographies blockbuster films school pageants or sleeping pill advertisements Hogan shows how the use of the Lincoln image reveals the nation s shared fears and fascinations The book analyzes the ways we employ Lincoln today in our political ideological personal and national struggles the ways we simultaneously deify and commercially exploit him the ways he is packaged and sold in the marketplace of American ideas In learning about Lincoln Inc we learn about ourselves about who we think we are and who we wish we could be

Looking for Lincoln in Illinois Guy C. Fraker,2017-11-10 For twenty three years Abraham Lincoln practiced law on the Eighth Judicial Circuit in east central Illinois and his legal career is explored in Looking for Lincoln in Illinois A Guide to Lincoln s Eighth Judicial Circuit the first guidebook to the circuit Guy C Fraker directs readers and travelers through the prairies to the towns in which Lincoln practiced law Twice a year spring and fall Lincoln s work took him through the circuit s fourteen counties a ten to twelve week journey covering more than four hundred miles As his stature as a lawyer grew east central Illinois grew in population and influence and the circuit provided Lincoln with clients friends and associates who became part of the network that ultimately elevated him to the presidency Fraker guides travelers down the long stretches of quiet country roads that gave Lincoln time to read and think shaping his views of democracy and governance to the locations where Lincoln's broad range of cases expanded his sense of the economic and social forces changing America. This addition to the Looking for Lincoln series provides detailed directions, five maps of the routes and more than one hundred images of the people that impacted Lincoln and the places where so many formative events occurred. Showcasing courthouse markers, county line markers, Looking for Lincoln Wayside Exhibits and numerous other points of interest, this unique guidebook invites travelers to visit the towns where Lincoln practiced law, view the terrain that is much the same now as when Lincoln passed and perhaps experience a sense of Lincoln's presence in those quiet out-of-the-way places. Looking for Lincoln H A Freeman, 2020-11-25. After a time machine malfunctions, history's greatest heroes and villains are set loose on the small town of Antiquity Hill. Now it's up to the kids of the History Hounds Detective Agency, Zahra, Austin, Carlos, and Georgia, to follow the clues, find the historical figures, and send them back to the past. The History Hounds is a book series that uses humor, mystery, and fast-paced storytelling to introduce 7-11 year olds to the people, events, and excitement of world history. In Looking for Lincoln, the History Hounds learn that a tall bearded man with a stovepipe hat has been seen sneaking around town. Could it be the 16th president of the United States? With the help of an eccentric old lady who's obsessed with pink flamingos and a chihuahua named Mr. Sparkles, a dusty phonebook from the local library, and a young lawyer, the kids must race against the clock to find President Lincoln and send him back to the 1800s before it's too late. Looking for Lincoln is not only a page-turning primer on the life and times of Abraham Lincoln, but also introduces young readers to the larger-than-life characters they'll come to know and love in The History Hounds series. Learning history has never been so much fun.

Abraham Lincoln as a Man Among Men (Classic Reprint) Guy Lynn Sumner, 2017-12-19. Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln as a Man Among Men. If I should carve a Lincoln, I would take No snow-white marble, but a rugged rock. One that the frosts of Winter could not break. That had withstood the ocean's thundering shock. Some solid rock amid the shifting sands. Unmoved by storm, unaltered by the wave. Some granite giant that forever stands. To mark the harbor with a light to save. If I should carve a Lincoln, I would shape Some promontory lifting from the sea. Standing as Lincoln stood, a mighty cape. Thrust forward into time, a century. Looking as Lincoln looked beyond the shore. Across the ocean of the future years. A rock to stand for men forevermore. And point the way to other pioneers. If I should carve a Lincoln, I would form A figure from a rock that loved the sun. A rock that glistened after every storm. And smiled with verdure when the rain was done. A rock where little children came to play. And violets to blossom on the slope. That found like Lincoln humor in each day. In words of humor, finding words of hope. If you would carve a Lincoln such a stone. You will require O sculptor, for your art. Some stone gigantic standing thus alone. High as his mind and broad as Lincoln's heart. We may not hope to shape with human hands. A fit memorial for such as he. Leave Time to carve it from some rock that stands. Some new Gibraltar by our western sea. About the Publisher. Looking for Lincoln, 2018      We Are Lincoln Men David Herbert Donald, 2007-11-01 In this brilliant and illuminating portrait of our sixteenth president two time Pulitzer Prize winner David Herbert Donald examines the significance of friendship in Abraham Lincoln's life and the role it played in shaping his career and his presidency Though Abraham Lincoln had hundreds of acquaintances and dozens of admirers he had almost no intimate friends Behind his mask of affability and endless stream of humorous anecdotes he maintained an inviolate reserve that only a few were ever able to penetrate Professor Donald's remarkable book offers a fresh way of looking at Abraham Lincoln both as a man who needed friendship and as a leader who understood the importance of friendship in the management of men Donald penetrates Lincoln's mysterious reserve to offer a new picture of the president's inner life and to explain his unsurpassed political skills

Lincoln, Life-size Philip B. Kunhardt, Peter W. Kunhardt, Peter W. Kunhardt (Jr.), 2009 This unique and beautiful book captures an overlooked but vital aspect of Lincoln his face Taken across a span of nearly 20 years from 1846 to 1865 these images provide a wide range of Lincolns from wise and bemused to melancholic and homely      Abraham Lincoln the Practical Mystic Francis Grierson, 2013-12 The side of Lincoln you did not know This book was written almost 100 years ago A classic on its own NOAH BROOKS in his Life of Lincoln gives the following account of a vision which the President described to him It was just after my nomination in 1860 when the news was coming thick and fast all day and there had been a great Hurrah Boys so that I was well tired out and went home to rest and threw myself on a lounge in my chamber Opposite where I lay was a bureau with a swinging glass and looking in the glass I saw myself reflected nearly at full length but my face I noticed had two separate and distinct images the tip of the nose of one being about three inches from the tip of the other I was a little bothered perhaps startled and got up and looked in the glass but the illusion vanished On lying down again I saw it a second time plainer if possible than before Then I noticed that one of the faces was a little paler say five shades than the other I got up and the thing melted away I left and in the excitement of the hour forgot all about it nearly but not quite for the thing would once in a while come up and give me a little pang as though something uncomfortable had happened Later in the day I told my wife about it and a few days later I tried the experiment again when sure enough the thing came again My wife thought that it was a sign that I was to be elected to a second term of office and that the paleness of one of the faces was an omen that I should not live through the last term Not long after his second inauguration he said to a friend in Washington I have seen this evening what I saw on the evening of my nomination As I stood before a mirror I saw two images of myself a bright one in front and one that was pallid standing behind It completely unnerved me The bright one I know is my past the pale one my coming life I do not think I shall live to see the end of my second term In his biography

Morgan relates a dream which Lincoln had He thought he was in Images and Dreams a vast assembly and the people drew back to let him pass Just then Lincoln heard someone say He is a common looking fellow Lincoln in his dream turned to the man and said Friend the Lord prefers common looking people that is the reason He makes so many of them Shortly before Lincoln s assassination some friends were talking about certain dreams recorded in the Bible when the President said About two days ago I retired very late I could not have been long in bed when I fell into a slumber for I was weary I soon began to dream There seemed to be a deathlike stillness about me Then I heard subdued sobs as if a number of people were weeping I thought I left my bed and wandered downstairs There the silence was broken by the same pitiful sobbing but the mourners were invisible I went from room to room no living person was in sight but the same mournful sounds of distress met me as I passed along It was light in all the rooms every object was familiar to me but where were all the people who were grieving as if their hearts would break I was puzzled and alarmed What could be the meaning of all this Determined to find the cause of a state of things so mysterious and so shocking I kept on until I arrived at the East Room which I entered Before me was a catafalque on which was a form wrapped in funeral vestments Around it were stationed soldiers who were acting as guards there was a throng of people some gazing mournfully upon the catafalque others weeping pitifully Who is dead in the White House I demanded of one of the soldiers The President was the answer He was killed by an assassin Then came a loud burst of grief from the crowd which woke me from my dream
