Naked Lady Soup Heather Jo Flores, 2016-03-18 Heartbroken homeless desperate for love and lost on a quest for meaning a 30 something feminist artist farmer and activist stumbles upon an unlikely ally herself Written by Heather Jo Flores the author of Food Not Lawns How to Turn Your Yard into a Garden and Your Neighborhood into a Community Naked Lady Soup is equal parts memoir manifesto and magical realism with a healthy dose of tragic comedy and personal growth

Grand Designs Aneta Podkalicka, Esther Milne, Jenny Kennedy, 2018-11-28 This is the first academic book to examine the long running hit series Grand Designs which occupies a significant place in the popular imagination internationally The authors apply an empirically grounded critical perspective to the study of television to reveal how people use the program in their everyday lives The emphasis on everyday uses and meanings combines creatively with understanding the program theoretically textually and in terms of its production structures This position challenges framings of the popular lifestyle and factual television genre that has been dominated by a neoliberal or governmentality perspective for many years Presented by British designer and writer Kevin McCloud Grand Designs follows the progress of home owners as they embark on design renovation and building projects at almost always dizzying scales of endeavour Understanding the program as both a text to analyse and a site of material impact the book draws on interviews with production members home renovators building practitioners and audiences as well as references to associated media formats to provide contextual depth to the analysis The authors argue that as a cultural object the program is both shaped by and enacts social discourses of home making design value and taste Navigating public commercial and promotional logics Grand Designs sparks new forms of cultural production and consumer markets
