Kat Armas, 2021-08-10 Christianity Today 2022 Book Award Finalist Christian Living Discipleship Outreach 2022

Recommended Resource Christian Living A powerful debut This persuasive testament will appeal to Christians interested in the lesser known women of the Bible Publishers Weekly Armas expertly weaves her own abuelita's history of personal faith and resistance into each chapter and intersects it with biblical text creating an approachable work Library Journal What if some of our greatest theologians wouldn't be considered theologians at all Kat Armas a second generation Cuban American grew up on the outskirts of Miami's famed Little Havana neighborhood Her earliest theological formation came from her grandmother her abuelita who fled Cuba during the height of political unrest and raised three children alone after her husband passed away Combining personal storytelling with biblical reflection Armas shows us how voices on the margins those often dismissed isolated and oppressed because of their gender socioeconomic status or lack of education have more to teach us about following God than we realize Abuelita Faith tells the story of unnamed and overlooked theologians in society and in the Bible mothers grandmothers sisters and daughters whose survival strength resistance and persistence teach us the true power of faith and love The author's exploration of abuelita theology will help people of all cultural and ethnic backgrounds reflect on the abuelitas in their lives and ministries and on ways they can live out abuelita faith every day

The Christian as Imitator of Christ Francis Kofi Achampong, 2025-04-25 Two and a half billion people worldwide profess to be Christians These include people who espouse ideas about White Christianity Christian nationalism Christian libertarianism racial segregation and racial purity It also includes people who see assistance to the poor as handouts that perpetuate poverty The latter group includes people who espouse ideas about accountable individualism where people are expected to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps and become self-sufficient as a sign of faith in God's grace and a perversion of crucicentrism which takes the position that it is compassionate to allow poor people to suffer because it can drive them to the cross and salvation in Christ God's Apocalyptic Insurrection Richard D. Crane, 2024-10-15 What if our inherited theologies of salvation are distorted by a sinful history that includes white supremacy slavery and colonial conquest What if we perpetuate this distortion by continuing to imagine salvation as a legal transaction by which we are saved by God from divine punishment If salvation merely rectifies the individual's standing before God justice and human flourishing are viewed as peripheral to the gospel This book begins with a bit of deconstruction But the real need is construction or perhaps the discovery of another soteriological imagination To be saved is to be drawn into union with Jesus Messiah the bringer of the now and future reign of God where all things are rectified Jesus's life death and resurrected body are the space where a disordered creation is put right Jesus is God s apocalyptic insurrection against every power that dehumanizes harms and destroys human persons We are saved by the triune God by God s gracious acceptance that cannot be earned But we are saved for participation in the invasion of God s reign of justice healing and transformation Salvation has everything to do with caring for refugees resisting systemic racial and other injustices food for the hungry and valuing human persons as Christ incognito Feminist Trauma Theologies Karen O'Donnell,Katie Cross,2020-02-28 With contributions from a diverse team of scholars Feminist Trauma Theologies is an essential resource for all thinkers and practitioners who are trying to navigate the current conversations around theology suffering and feminism Annotated Indiana Statutes, 1933
