HOMEWORK
Xpress!

Your Homework Management Solution!

Finally, there is a tool to cut the inefficiencies out of homework — for both instructors and students! Homework Xpress! is an easy-to-use, text-specific homework management system allowing students to complete end-of-chapter exercises via the Internet. Homework Xpress! allows instructors to easily assess whether students have adequately prepared for class, identify potential problem areas to cover in class, and — with students well grounded in the basics — spend more class time covering higher-level or abstract concepts.

Assignment Material: Includes text-specific problems and exercises that are derived from and correlate closely with the book's end-of-chapter material. Instructors may pick and choose the assignments they wish to use, and student results are automatically recorded in a gradebook.

Concept Practice and Review Activities: Students can access a wide range of practice and review material from a multimedia library of both book-specific and generic elements to build a customized teaching and learning solution. Students can go through a complete review of the material and get feedback on their preparation before they try to do the graded assignments.

Graphing Tools: Homework Xpress! offers graphing problems without the grading hassles through its unique "Sketch It" tool, which gives students freehand graphing problems and checks them automatically. Sketch It problems are provided both as Assignment and as Concept Practice and Review exercises.

Current Events: To help you easily incorporate current events into your classroom without having to devote time to searching for the most relevant and timely articles, links to South-Western's EconNews, EconDebates, and EconData Online features are included in Homework Xpress!

Customizable: You can tailor Homework Xpress! to your individualized course needs — pick and choose the assignments you want to give, decide when and for how long to make them available to your students, and use only the features and/or chapters of your choice, or use them all. It's up to you!
