- 1 I knew one 4th Division Lurp who took his pills by the fistful downs from the left pocket of his tiger suit and ups from the right one to cut the trail for him and the other to send him down it He told me that they cooled things out just right for him
- 2 I was waiting for a helicopter to take me out of there The rest of the team had caught a chopper straight into one of the lower hells but it was a quiet time in the war mostly it was LZs and camps
- 3 The more you moved the more you saw and the more you saw the more you risked death and mutilation The system was geared to keep you mobile if that was what you wanted but it began to make sense only if you were there to begin with
- 4 Flying over jungle was almost pure pleasure but flying over jungle and landing in it was always painful I never belonged in there Maybe it was what the people had always called it Beyond

The Depiction of Violence and the Soldier's everyday life in Michael Herr's "Dispatches" and Tim O'Brien's "The Things they carried" Philipp Kock, 2010 Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2008 im Fachbereich Englisch Literatur Werke Note 2,0 Philipps Universität Marburg Amerikanistik Veranstaltung American War Literature Sprache Deutsch Abstract

1 Introduction

1.1 Topic statement Michael Herr's Dispatches and Tim O'Brien's The Things they carried I will use the abbreviation Things are two well known examples of Vietnam War Literature Things approaches the Vietnam War as a work of fiction The author states in the beginning of his book Except for a few details regarding the author's own life all the incidents names and characters are imaginary Critics refer Things to Postmodernism Dispatches however is not fiction Michael Herr covered the war for 2 years 1967-69 for the Esquire magazine and in 1978 the year of the publication Dispatches was nominated for the National Book Award for nonfiction Bonn 28 The critics label

Dispatches as New Journalism Michael Herr's Dispatches is the work of a war correspondent but it is not journalism in the ordinary sense of the word i.e. an objective detached reporting of the facts. Instead it is a work of the so called New Journalism a hybrid form that in typical postmodern fashion blurs traditional genre distinctions. The New Journalism abandons all pretense of impersonal objectivity instead an intense substituting subjectivity that also employs such devices of fiction as characterization flashbacks and interior monologue. Carpenter 36-37. This term paper deals with the depiction of the Vietnam War in Dispatches and Things with a special focus on the depiction of violence and the everyday life of the soldiers. Because of the fact that the books are different in style and narrative transmission I will put briefly some emphasis on those aspects in the beginning. 1-2. Thesis statement Both writers depict the war without moral purposes showing as well the negative features of the war: death, terror, fear, brutalization, deadening. Ernest Hemingway's In Our Time and Michael Herr's Dispatches: Collections of Perspectives on the Great War and the Vietnam War, 2007 Inventing Vietnam Michael A. Anderegg, 1991. Testimony of the unique relationship between the U.S. Vietnam War and the images and sounds that have been employed to represent it. The New York Times Book Review The New York Times, 2021-11-02. A delightful Vanity Fair collection from the longest running most influential book review in America featuring its best, funniest, strangest and most memorable coverage over the past 125 years. Since its first issue on October 10, 1896, The New York Times Book Review has brought the world of ideas to the reading public. It is the publication where authors have been made and where readers first encountered the classics that have enriched their lives. Now the editors have curated the Book Review's dynamic 125 year history which is essentially the story of modern American letters. Brimming with remarkable reportage and photography, this beautiful book collects interesting reviews never before heard, anecdotes about famous writers and spicy letter exchanges. Here are the first takes on novels we now consider masterpieces including a long forgotten pan of Anne of Green Gables and a rave of Mrs. Dalloway along with reviews and essays by Langston Hughes, Eudora Welty, James Baldwin, Nora Ephron and more. With scores of stunning vintage photographs, many of them sourced from the Times's own archive, readers will discover how literary tastes have shifted through the years and how the Book Review's coverage has shaped so much of what we read today. Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2020-12-16. Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture: Popular Cultural Conceptions of War since World War II explores how war has been portrayed in the United States since World War II with a particular focus on an emotionally charged but rarely scrutinized topic: combat death. Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that most stories about war use three main building blocks: melodrama, adventure, and horror. Monnet examines how melodrama and adventure have helped make war seem acceptable to the American public by portraying combat death as a meaningful sacrifice and by making military killing look necessary and often even pleasurable. Horror no longer serves its traditional purpose of making the bloody realities of war repulsive but has instead been repurposed in recent years to intensify the positivity of melodrama and adventure. Thus, this book offers a fascinating diagnosis of how war stories perform ideological and emotional work and why they have such a powerful grip on the American imagination      Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research      Philip Roth Ira Bruce Nadel, 2021 In Philip Roth A Counterlife Ira Nadel exposes the multifaceted disposition of this major voice in American letters Roth the realist the ironist the ventriloquist the impersonator the bard In navigating the intricacies and dualities of the public and private Roth Nadel shows the complexities the contradictions and the counterlives both lived and imagined As literary sleuth Nadel has enriched the myriad possibilities for understanding this exacting and defiant writer and his work Professor Nadel s study is always very readable and compelling but its discussion of material that has never been accessed before is particularly exciting Philip Roth A Counterlife engages and illuminates the scenes of discontent betrayal illness and rage in Roth s own life that allow for new understandings of his work and relationships Drawing on such primary source material as interviews personal correspondence and site visits Nadel s biography penetrates the carefully composed narrative Roth presented publicly in order to present a counter Philip Roth one who is at once more sympathetic to his readers than critics realize and more dynamic than even his self creation allows Nadel seamlessly weaves his interpretations of Roth s most provocative texts into the story of Roth s own life a life shadowed by pain illness and personal injustices but also illuminated by the joys of writing ideas and friendships that will persist long after his death Book jacket      America's First Battles, 1776-1965 Charles E. Heller, William A. Stofft, 1986 This volume a collection of eleven original essays by many of the foremost U S military historians focuses on the transition of the Army from parade ground to battleground in each of nine wars the United States has fought Through careful analysis of organization training and tactical doctrine each essay seeks to explain the strengths and weaknesses evidenced by the outcome of the first significant engagement or campaign of the war The concluding essay sets out to synthesize the findings and to discover whether or not American first battles manifest a characteristic rhythm

America's First Battles provides a novel and intellectually challenging view of how America has prepared for war and how operations and tactics have changed over time. The thrust of the book, the emphasis on operational history, is at the forefront of scholarly activity in military history. This book is part of the Modern War Studies series. American Soldiers Peter S. Kindsvatter, 2003. Some warriors are drawn to the thrill of combat and find it the defining moment of their lives. Others fall victim to fear, exhaustion, impaired reasoning, and despair. This book synthesizes the wartime experiences of American soldiers from the doughboys of World War I to the grunts of Vietnam. Focusing on both soldiers and marines, it draws on histories and memoirs, oral histories, psychological and sociological studies, and even fiction to show that their experiences remain fundamentally the same regardless of the enemy, terrain, training, or weaponry. Atenea, 2004. The New York Times Book Review, 1978. Black Prisoner of War James A. Daly, Lee Bergman, 2000. Among the few autobiographical works about Vietnam by a black author, this memoir by Daly (1946-98), a Jehovah's Witness who renounced the US position after five years in the infamous Hanoi Hilton, controversially explores race relations and the less-than-courageous. The introduction provides context. Originally published by Bobbs Merrill as A Hero's Welcome. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc., Portland, OR. Outcasts Howard Good, 1989. This book examines how representative films about journalism from the early 1960s to the mid 1980s allegorized the working life of the journalist. The central chapters deal with three popular images of journalists: the war correspondent, the scoop-crazed reporter, or ratings-hungry TV executive, and the investigative journalist. Among the films discussed are The Green Berets, The Killing Fields, Under Fire, Absence of Malice, Network, The China Syndrome, and All the President's Men. California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Received document entitled APPENDIX OF EXHIBITS TO PETITION FOR WRIT. America and the Indochina Wars, 1945-1990 Lester H. Brune, Richard Dean Burns, 1992.
