

Care and Cleaning

CAUTION : To avoid electric shock, unplug the breadmaker and allow it to cool before cleaning.

Clean your Magic Chef Automatic Breadmaker by wiping it with a soft cloth and a mild detergent. NEVER immerse the unit in water! NEVER use scouring powder, steel wool pads, or other abrasive materials. And, NEVER use any chemicals such as benzine, paint thinner, alcohol, etc.

Note : The bread pan may change color after long use. This is natural effect caused by moisture and steam and will not affect the performance of the unit.

- Remove the bread pan as described and rinse with mild detergent and warm water. The Bread Pan has a non-stick coating surface. Do not use any harsh cleaners or utensils on these parts as scratching may occur. Do not immerse base of Bread Pan in water as this could cause the drive shaft to malfunction.
- If the kneading blade has stuck to the drive shaft, pour warm water in the pan and let it sit for 15 - 20 minutes to loosen it. If the hole of the kneading blade is filled with dough, clean it with a toothpick or small brush.
- The Cover on your Magic Chef Breadmaker is removable. Open the cover about halfway and then pull it out towards you for easy cleaning. Remember not to scour any part of it. Wipe with a damp cloth only - do not use glass cleaners on the window. Re-install by inserting the lid slots fully into the receiving posts on the breadmaker. Close gently to ensure that the cover is well positioned.

- Wipe the exterior housing of the unit with a damp cloth or slightly dampened sponge or cloth to wipe out any flour, crumbs, or other materials from the baking chamber.
- Before storing the breadmaker, allow the unit to completely cool.
