Msu Selected Students For August 2015:

Auraria Higher Education Center Crowe (Firm),2019 Creating Experiential Learning Opportunities for Language Learners Melanie Bloom,Carolyn Gascoigne,2017-03-08 While much research has been done on experiential learning opportunities in study abroad settings there are fewer publications devoted to experiential learning in the domestic context This volume aims to fill that gap by providing a collection of chapters highlighting research based innovations in experiential learning in domestic settings The book focuses on three experiential learning contexts community engagement experiences professional engagement experiences and other unique experiential contexts such as language camps and houses The collection focuses on the US context but the research projects and curricular innovations described here can serve as models for educators working in other local contexts and will encourage interested practitioners to explore experiential learning opportunities in their local areas It will also provide the reader with a better understanding of this growing field of inquiry and should appeal to graduate students and researchers who are interested in experiential language learning Shadow of My Shadow Jennifer Doyle,2024-07-15 Over the course of two years Jennifer Doyle filed multiple harassment complaints with her campus s Title IX office and one with the Department of Labor Her experiences with these complaints and how they subsequently impacted her life have led to this book Shadow of My Shadow Doyle tells her personal story sharing how she lost her sense of voice felt exposed at work became distrustful of students and colleagues and was consumed by grief Working across autobiography literary criticism an analysis of the Larry Nassar Title IX case and a larger institutional critique of harassment administration Doyle shows that harassment is at once intimate dynamic and intensely social flourishing in neglected social spaces In her own case it profoundly reshaped her relationship to her work her writing and ultimately to herself As Doyle explains the experience drew out the distance between herself in the world and herself on the page This book is her effort to understand and repair that breach and to consider how loss and grief can be sources of insight and compassion Montana ,2018 The College Blue Book Huber William Hurt,Harriet-Jeanne Hurt,1975 Auraria Higher Education Center KPMG International,2015 Internationalization and the North American University Library Karen Bordonaro,2013-08-08 This book offers a fresh perspective on understanding university library work with international users in North America It investigates what librarians international students and international scholars perceive the role of the university library to be in internationalization in higher education It also explores the phenomenon of internationalization itself as it is lived and experienced by both librarians and international users Personal definitions and experiences of internationalization offered by librarians and international users include viewing internationalization as the broadening of knowledge on multiple levels the idea of seeing oneself as part of a greater whole and the building of international research connections Both librarians and international users describe elements of internationalization such as exposure awareness engagement empathy and transcending boundaries Inherent contradictions are present as well such as the stronger emphasis on defining differences rather than similarities and the disconnect between inward and outward looking aspects of internationalization Finally this book connects theoretical perspectives concerning the phenomenon of internationalization to the practice of academic librarianship in North America It does this by presenting what librarians in both the United States and Canada think about working with international users in terms of benefits challenges and best practices Practical lessons learned include the need to move beyond focusing solely on the linguistic and cultural challenges of working with international users to also consider the positive aspects of working with them such as widening worldviews and expanding personal knowledge

Visualisation and Epistemological Access to Mathematics Education in Southern Africa Marc Schäfer, 2023-04-27 This book demonstrates that using visualisation processes in mathematics education can help to enhance teaching and learning and bridge the inequality gap that exists between well resourced and under resourced schools in Southern Africa Drawing on classroom research conducted in the Southern African region it examines how epistemological access in a context of gross inequality can be constructively addressed by providing research based solutions and recommendations The book outlines the visualisation process as an integral but often overlooked process of mathematics teaching and learning It goes beyond the traditional understanding of visualisation processes such as picture forming and using tools and considers visualisation processes that are semiotic in nature and includes actions such as gestures in combination with language It adds value to the visualisation in mathematics education research discourse and deliberation in Africa With a unique focus on Southern Africa and open avenues for further research and collaboration in the region it will be a highly relevant reading for researchers academics and post graduate students of mathematics education comparative education and social justice education
