Session- South Africa. Parliament. Senate,1972 The Planner ,1988 Seeing Like a Citizen Kara Moskowitz,2019-11-12

In Seeing Like a Citizen Kara Moskowitz approaches Kenya's late colonial and early postcolonial eras as a single period of political economic and social transition. In focusing on rural Kenyans, the vast majority of the populace and the main targets of development interventions as they actively sought access to aid, she offers new insights into the texture of political life in decolonizing Kenya and the early postcolonial world. Using multisited archival sources and oral histories focused on the western Rift Valley, Seeing Like a Citizen makes three fundamental contributions to our understanding of African and Kenyan history. First, it challenges the widely accepted idea of the gatekeeper state, revealing that state control remained limited and that the postcolonial state was an internally varied and often dissonant institution. Second, it transforms our understanding of postcolonial citizenship, showing that its balance of rights and duties was neither claimed nor imposed but negotiated and differentiated. Third, it reorients Kenyan historiography away from central Kenya and elite postcolonial politics. The result is a powerful investigation of experiences of independence, the meaning and form of development, and of how global political practices were composed and recomposed on the ground in local settings.

Public Accounts Committee,1956 Report of the Public Accounts Committee of the Government of Kenya Accounts Kenya. Public Accounts Committee,1956 Awkward Dominion Frank Costigliola,1984 In Awkward Dominion Frank Costigliola offers a striking interpretation of the emergence of the United States as a world power in the 1920s, a period in which the country faced both burdens and opportunities as a result of the First World War. Exploring the key international issues in the interwar period—peace treaty revisions, Western economic recovery, and modernization—Costigliola considers American political and economic success in light of Europe's fascination with American technology, trade, and culture. The figures through which he tells this story include Herbert Hoover, Calvin Coolidge, Henry Stimson, Charles Lindbergh, Ernest Hemingway, and Henry Ford.

Report of the Public Accounts Committee on the Government of Kenya Accounts for the Year ... Kenya. National Assembly Public Accounts Committee,1955 Hoover, Conservation, and Consumerism Kendrick A. Clements,2000 To some extent Hoover's policies anticipated directions that would be pursued by modern environmentalists. The National Conference on Outdoor Recreation brought together wilderness advocates and urban planners and passage of the first federal law to limit oil pollution in navigable waters marked the beginning of an ongoing effort to control the effects of industrialization on the environment. Hoover's advocacy of pleasant, affordable housing introduced the idea that our everyday environment is the starting point for environmental concerns.
