Transforming Theological Education Perry Shaw,2014-05-14 For several decades concern has been expressed about the need for greater integration and contextual significance in the curricular design of theological education In addition there has been a growing awareness of the role theological schools should play in strengthening the missional vision and practice of local churches Since 2008 the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary in Lebanon has been engaged in an ongoing experiment in the design and implementation of an integrated and contextually driven curriculum Drawing on lessons learned from this experience and from the wider discourse currently taking place in higher education Transforming Theological Education provides theoretical foundations and practical principles for purposeful curriculum design as well as tools for integrated and contextually significant learning in the classroom Transforming Theological Education, 2nd Edition Perry Shaw,2022-01-31 For several decades concern has been expressed about the need for greater integration and contextual significance in the curricular design of theological education In addition there has been a growing awareness of the role theological schools should play in strengthening the missional vision and practice of local churches Drawing on Dr Perry Shaw s experience as faculty member educational engineer and acting academic dean for Arab Baptist Theological Seminary Transforming Theological Education provides theoretical foundations and practical principles for purposeful curriculum design as well as tools for facilitating integrated and contextually significant learning in the classroom This updated second edition has been reorganized for thematic clarity and expanded to provide a stronger foundation for thinking theologically rather than just educationally about theological education It also contains a wider range of curricular examples from innovative theological programs around the world along with practical advice for implementing change in change resistant environments This handbook continues to be a one of a kind resource for theological educators and all those involved in Christian leadership training Handbook of Research on Inclusive Development for Remote Adjunct Faculty in Higher Education Dailey-Hebert, Amber,Mandernach, B. Jean,Donnelli-Sallee, Emily,2020-10-16 As the number of adjunct faculty teaching online courses remotely for their institutions continues to increase so do the unique challenges they face including issues of distance and isolation as well as problems pertaining to motivation time and compensation Not only are these higher education faculty geographically isolated from each other and their colleagues at flagship campuses but they also lack adequate institutional support and resources necessary to perform their roles As institutions continue to rely heavily on this group of under supported and undertrained instructors who teach the majority of online courses offered across the country institutions need models and strategies to tap the expertise and perspectives of this group not only to improve teaching and learning in online programs but also to retain this critical talent pool More consideration is needed to create institutional affinity and organizational commitment build community and create opportunities for remote adjunct faculty to be included as an integral component to their academic departments The Handbook of Research on Inclusive Development for Remote Adjunct Faculty in Higher Education is a comprehensive reference work that presents research theoretical frameworks instructor perspectives and program models that highlight effective strategies innovative approaches and unique considerations for creating professional development opportunities for remote adjunct faculty teaching online This book provides concrete practices that foster inclusivity among contingent faculty teaching online as well as tangible practices that have been successfully implemented from faculty developers and academic leaders at institutions who have a large population of and heavy reliance on remote adjunct instructors While addressing topics that include faculty engagement mentoring programs and instructor resources this book intends to support remote instructors in the post pandemic world It is also beneficial for faculty development professionals academic administrative leaders higher education stakeholders and higher education faculty researchers and students   A Handbook for Managing Mentoring Programs Laura Gail Lunsford,2016-08-11 Despite the interest and pervasiveness of mentoring there has been little attention devoted to professionalizing mentoring for program managers in learning organizations especially post secondary institutions and there are scant resources available for mentoring coordinators This book fills that gap Drawing on research on mentoring and coaching in psychology education and organizations this guide translates research into practice by helping program administrators learn more about the behaviors of mentoring stages of mentoring relationships elements of high quality relationships and recognizing and avoiding dysfunctional ones The book includes diagnostic surveys and case studies that coordinators might use in their programs and makes an important contribution to the literature on mentoring providing a practical up to date resource for those working in the field on how to set up run and evaluate their mentoring programs
