Digital Convergence - Libraries of the Future Rae Earnshaw, John Vince, 2007-09-20 The convergence of IT telecommunications and media is changing the way information is collected stored and accessed This revolution is having effects on the development and organisation of information and artefact repositories such as libraries and museums This book presents key aspects in the rapidly moving field of digital convergence in the areas of technology and information sciences Its chapters are written by international experts who are leaders in their fields Enabling Interaction and Quality Anne Gams Steine Asserson, E. J. Simons, 2006 This proceedings book illustrates the tremendous evolution driven by the revolutionary ICT developments of the 90 s The Future of the Academic Journal Bill Cope, Angus Phillips, 2009-06-22 Examines current issues in journals publishing and reviews how the industry will develop over the next few years With contributions from leading academics and industry professionals the book provides an authoritative and balanced view of this fast changing area There are a variety of views surrounding the future of journals and these are covered using a range of contributors Online access is now taken for granted 90 per cent of journals published are now available online an increase from 75 per cent in 2003 Looks at a fast moving and vital area for academics and publishers Contains contributions from leading international figures from universities and publishers Research , Handbook of Research on Managing Intellectual Property in Digital Libraries Tella, Adeyinka, Kwanya, Tom, 2017-08-16 Taking into consideration the variety of information being created produced and published the acquisition and archiving of e resources by digital libraries is rapidly increasing As such managing the rights to these resources is imperative The Handbook of Research on Managing Intellectual Property in Digital Libraries is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on strategies in which digital libraries engage in the management of increasing digital intellectual property to protect both the users and the creators of the resources Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as copyright management open access and software programs this book is ideally designed for academicians researchers and practitioners seeking material on property rights and e resources Educating the Global Workforce for Public Health Sanjay P. Zodpey, Roger A. Harrison, Michal Grivna, John R. Finnegan, Connie J. Evashwick, 2018-03-16 Good quality management of the health system demands a critical mass of health professionals with sound technical knowledge The education that produces a workforce of appropriate size and skills is often a challenge in the delivery of quality health services Incidentally health professionals education has not kept pace with the new emerging challenges Recent globalization of health has further led to international migration of health professionals thereby leading to cross border recognition of health workers with an appropriate skill mix knowledge and competence The Lancet Commission Report of 2010 highlighted the need to develop a common strategy at a global level for postgraduate medical nursing and public health education that reaches beyond the confines of national borders and the silos of individual professions This vision would require a series of instructional and institutional reforms

which should be guided by two proposed outcomes transformative learning and interdependence in education The purpose of this Research Topic is to increase the shared understanding of the current status of the education of the health workforce around the globe particularly those working in the public health sector With this foundation further research and evaluation studies can then be done with a perspective that addresses global workforce issues impacting access prevention and care
