The Consolations of Economics Gerard Lyons, 2014-06-17 In the next twenty years the world economy will enjoy one of its strongest periods of growth Greater innovation and technical change will increase opportunities Life expectancy income and educational standards will rise The West's share in the global economic cake may get smaller but there will be more cake than ever before These are the predictions of Gerard Lyons a leading international economist who spent nearly thirty years working in the City He is now the chief economic adviser to the Mayor of London Over the last quarter century he has been ahead of the game in predicting the major economic trends that we now take as a given The Consolations of Economics is a lucid and accessible expert's attempt to look objectively at the changing global economy what is happening and what it means He shows how we can embrace change rather than hide from it The results are fascinating refreshing and unusually cheering

Building the Impact Economy Maximilian Martin, 2015-11-25 This book develops a comprehensive framework for creating sustainable new business approaches on a massive scale It relates the power of entrepreneurship investment and technology to four areas in which progress is urgently needed to get out of the world's current impasse These are game changing innovations in companies a way forward for the global fashion industry that reconciles competitiveness and worker dignity turning around the energy crisis and restoring capital markets to being the funders of human progress and prosperity that they once were the pieces of the puzzle that is our future Numerous case studies and actionable guidelines show how to concretely get the job done

Job Creation and Local Economic Development OECD, 2014-11-19 This publication highlights new evidence on policies to support job creation bringing together the latest research on labour market entrepreneurship and local economic development policy to help governments support job creation in the recovery

Handbook of the International Political Economy of Trade David Deese, 2014-08-29 This accessible comprehensive and pertinent Handbook will be of interest to academics researchers and students working in the fields of international politics in particular political economy and foreign policy and the economics of trade Practitio

Public Policy in International Economic Law Diane Desierto, 2015-02-19 States reject inequality when they choose to ratify the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights ICESCR but to date the ICESCR has not yet figured prominently in the policy calculus behind States' international economic decisions This book responds to the modern challenge of operationalizing the ICESCR particularly in the context of States' decisions within international trade finance and investment Differentiating between public policy mechanisms and institutional functional mandates in the international trade finance and investment systems this book shows legal and policy gateways for States to feasibly translate their fundamental duties to respect protect and fulfil economic social and cultural rights into their trade finance and investment commitments agreements and contracts It approaches the problem of harmonizing social protection objectives under the ICESCR with a State's international economic treaty obligations from the designing and interpreting international treaty texts up to the institutional monitoring and empirical analysis of ICESCR compliance In examining public policy options the book takes into account around five decades of States implementation of social protection commitments under the ICESCR its normative evolution through the UN Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and the Committee s expanded fact finding and adjudicative competences under the Optional Protocol to the ICESCR as well as the critical dialectical and deliberative roles of diverse functional interpretive communities within international trade finance and investment law Ultimately the book shoes how States ICESCR commitments operate as the normative foundation of their trade finance and investment decisions The Political Economy and Media Coverage of the European Economic Crisis Julien Mercille,2014-08-27

The European economic crisis has been ongoing since 2008 and while austerity has spread over the continent it has failed to revive economies The media have played an important ideological role in presenting the policies of economic and political elites in a favourable light even if the latter s aim has been to shift the burden of adjustment onto citizens This book explains how and why using a critical political economic perspective and focusing on the case of Ireland Throughout Ireland is compared with contemporary and historical examples to contextualise the arguments made The book covers the housing bubble that led to the crash the rescue of financial institutions by the state the role of the European institutions and the International Monetary Fund austerity and the possibility of leaving the eurozone for Europe s peripheral countries Through a systematic analysis of Ireland s main newspapers it is argued that the media reflect elite views and interests and downplay alternative policies that could lead to more progressive responses to the crisis Them and Us Philippe Legrain,2020-10-15 Winner of the Diversity Inclusion and Equality Award at the Business Book Awards 2021 Underpinned by scholarship entertaining Legrain s book fizzles with practical ideas The Economist The beauty of diversity is that innovation often comes about by serendipity As Scott Page observed one day in 1904 at the World Fair in St Louis the ice cream vendor ran out of cups Ernest Hami a Syrian waffle vendor in the booth next door rolled up some waffles to make cones and the rest is history Filled with data anecdotes and optimism Them and Us is an endorsement of cultural differences at a time of acute national introspection By every measure from productivity to new perspectives immigrants bring something beneficial to society If patriotism means wanting the best for your country we should be welcoming immigrants with open arms BCIM Economic Cooperation Gurudas Das,C. Joshua Thomas,2018-09-03
