"Painting, Politics and the Struggle for the ?ole de Paris, 1944?964 " Natalie Adamson,2017-07-05 Painting Politics and the Struggle for the ole de Paris 1944 1964 is the first book dedicated to the postwar or nouvelle ole de Paris It challenges the customary relegation of the ole de Paris to the footnotes not by arguing for some hitherto hidden merit for the art and ideas associated with this school but by establishing how and why the ole de Paris was a highly significant vehicle for artistic and political debate The book presents a sustained historical study of how this school was constituted by the paintings of a diverse group of artists by the combative field of art criticism and by the curatorial policies of galleries and state exhibitions By thoroughly mining the extensive resources of the newspaper and art journal press gallery and government archives artists writings and interviews with surviving artists and art critics the book traces the artists exhibitions and art critical debates that made the ole de Paris a zone of aesthetic and political conflict Through setting the ole de Paris into its artistic social and political context Natalie Adamson demonstrates how it functioned as the defining force in French postwar art in its defence of the tradition of easel painting as well as an international point of reference for the expansion of modernism In doing so she presents a wholly new perspective on the vexed relationships between painting politics and national identity in France during the two decades following World War II Asian and African Studies Slovenská akadémia vied.
