

During the Last Supper, Jesus said to his 12 disciples, "One of you will betray me!"
The disciples were all shocked and wondered what it could be. Jesus didn't say just that. "The one who dips his bread into the bowl with me will betray me. I told the guy to do it in a kitchen, but the man who betrays me will do it in a garden."

They went into the garden behind Jesus and sleeping. Jesus said, "Is not one of you?"

At this, Jesus replied, "You gave me this!" The man looked for any object around him, but nothing. He then changed and was Jesus' betrayer.

Jesus then blessed the bread.

Smith, 2010-08-01 This volume offers much needed theological reflection on the phenomenon of conversion and transformation Gordon Smith provides a robust evaluation that covers the broad range of thinking about conversion across Christian traditions and addresses global contexts Smith contends that both in the church and in discussions about contemporary mission the language of conversion inherited from revivalism is inadequate in helping to navigate the questions that shape how we do church how we approach faith formation how evangelism is integrated into congregational life and how we witness to the faith in non-Christian environments We must rethink the nature of the church in light of how people actually come to faith in Christ After drawing on ancient and pre-revivalist wisdom on conversion Smith delineates the contours of conversion and Christian initiation for today's church He concludes by discussing the art of spiritual autobiography and what it means to be a congregation The Tosti Engravings Anonymous, 2023-10-03 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 Bulletin Boston Public Library, 1871 Quarterly accession lists beginning with Apr 1893 the bulletin is limited to subject lists special bibliographies and reprints or facsimiles of original documents prints and manuscripts in the Library the accessions being recorded in a separate classified list Jan-Apr 1893 a weekly bulletin Apr 1893-Apr 1894 as well as a classified list of later accessions in the last number published of the bulletin itself Jan 1896 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public
