Portuguese Piano Music Nancy Lee Harper, 2013-01-10 As the first book of its kind Nancy Lee Harper s Portuguese Piano Music An Introduction and Annotated Bibliography fills the gap in the historical record of Portuguese piano music from its start in the 18th century to the present While although Spanish piano music is well documented owing to the reputation of such composers as Isaac Alb niz Enrique Granados and Manuel de Falla our knowledge of compositions in the tradition of Portuguese piano music has not fared as well barring the work of Carlos Seixas 1704 1742 This obscurity however reflects poorly on the history of early piano music in light of the many compositions written for fortepiano on behalf of the Portuguese court during the first half of the 18th century Indeed it was in the royal halls of King John V during his reign from 1706 to 1750 where the early fortepiano was frequently heard In Portuguese Piano Music Harper explores this rich musical tradition offering a brief introduction to the pianistic history of Portugal and overviews of Portugal s contributions to solo piano music piano in instrumental chamber music piano concerti piano for multiple pianists including with works with electronics and didactic piano While paying close attention to female composers Harper adds an annotated and graded bibliography that presents readers with a comprehensive inventory of compositions Appendixes include a selected discography list of publishers and other types of critical source information To further illustrate its contents Portuguese Piano Music contains a CD on which Harper performs representative repertoire some of which are world premieres This work is aimed at pianists teachers pupils musicologists and music lovers seeking to discover the remarkable world of Portuguese piano music

New Readings in Latin American and Spanish Literary and Cultural Studies Alejandro Cortazar, Laura M. Martins, 2014-03-17 Presenting and interrogating an array of texts and discourses this collection brings into focus a broad range of topics whose common denominator is the intersection between cultural productions and politics in different moments of the history of Latin America and Spain From the struggles of class distinction identity and community in 19th and 20th century and contemporary Latin America as explored in photography literature and film to how political and sexual transgressions from medieval times to the present are portrayed in Hispanic literature and the ways that canonical and non canonical texts in Spain have been defying hegemonic power relations in the 20th century and beyond This volume provides fresh approaches from well established scholars as well as from a new generation of researchers whose works enlighten the reader about the rich facets of such intersections This publication also offers a background to pursue further research in these areas and to serve the general public interested in Latin American and Spanish literary and cultural studies and those seeking a greater understanding of social and economic change in both Latin America and Spain specifically issues of inclusion and citizenship the constraints on state power in the neoliberal era the strategies used by texts to create subjects that are not bound to conventional identity formations and the challenges and possibilities of subverting the gaze of the institutional spectator
