

Beowulf: An Epic Hero

But again there have been some remarkable developments. The present situation appears to be a much more open one, though the American Embassy in Washington remains heavily involved in the question of alleged threats, even as several leading newspapers support the Department's position. Nevertheless, evidence also indicates that the present situation is actually a lot better than it was some time ago. This is important and should be recognized and not be taken as a sign of a complete return to the old situation. It is a sign of a new situation, one that is more open and more democratic.
