Larsen,2023-10-09 What if everything in the Bible has a larger outer context than is usually accounted for Missional and biblical theologies suggest that the Bible presents a grand story like a play with multiple acts The acts typically include creation fall redemption and finally restoration But what if the whole story itself occurs in another larger setting occurring within a mission running in the background throughout the whole Bible How might this aid our research reading and application And why is this being proposed now This book explores these questions The larger context is the production of the place of God a home and homeland wherein God with his people dwell on earth Since place is underdeveloped in biblical studies the book presents a new method for interpreting place Then the book lays out the case that a grand mission to produce the place of God becomes the outer context for the whole Bible Finally the book defends this proposal with an in depth placial commentary of the bookends of the Bible since these bookends provide keys to unlock this message thereby inviting further study on the rest of the Bible and on the implications for this transformative perspective Three Approaches to Biblical Metaphor Mordechai Z. Cohen,2021-10-01 This volume explores how the poetic technique of biblical metaphor was analyzed within the Jewish exegetical tradition that developed in Muslim Spain during the Golden Age of Hebrew poetry and was then transplanted to a Christian milieu Abraham Ibn Ezra and Maimonides applied concepts from Arabic poetics hermeneutics and logic to define metaphor and interpret it within their philological literary readings of Scripture David Kimhi integrated their methodologies with the midrashic creativity and sensitivity to nuance typical of his native Provence to create a new literary interpretive system that highlights the expressiveness of metaphor This study is important for readers interested in metaphor the Bible as literature the history of biblical interpretation and the inter relation between Arabic and Hebrew learning Ibadan Journal of English Studies ,2011 Medieval Exegesis and

Religious Difference Ryan Szpiech, 2015-05-01 Jews Christians and Muslims all have a common belief in the sanctity of a core holy scripture and commentary on scripture exegesis was at the heart of all three traditions in the Middle Ages At the same time because it dealt with issues such as the nature of the canon the limits of acceptable interpretation and the meaning of salvation history from the perspective of faith exegesis was elaborated in the Middle Ages along the faultlines of interconfessional disputation and polemical conflict This collection of thirteen essays by world renowned scholars of Judaism Christianity and Islam explores the nature of exegesis during the High and especially the Late Middle Ages as a discourse of cross cultural and interreligious conflict paying particular attention to the commentaries of scholars in the western and southern Mediterranean from Iberia and Italy to Morocco and Egypt Unlike other comparative studies of religion this collection is not a chronological history or an encyclopedic guide Instead it presents essays in four conceptual clusters Writing on the Borders of Islam Jewish Christian Conflict The Intellectual Activity of the Dominican Order and Gender that explore medieval exegesis as a vehicle for the expression of communal or religious identity one that reflects shared or competing notions of sacred history and sacred text This timely book will appeal to scholars and lay readers alike and will be essential reading for students of comparative religion historians charting the history of religious conflict in the medieval Mediterranean and all those interested in the intersection of Jewish Christian and Muslim beliefs and practices

Toward a Negative Theology of Judaism Ernest Rubinstein, 2025-07-29 This book reimagines Judaism and Jewish identity after the time honored method of negative theology It builds on negations that clear space for revisioning of such topics as creation and revelation the people and State of Israel history and suffering ritual and ethics God and spiritual life The theology builds on thought from key figures in the history of Jewish philosophy and serves along the way as an introduction to them including Ecclesiastes Philo Saadia Gaon Judah Halevi Maimonides Spinoza Moses Mendelssohn Nachman Krochmal Hermann Cohen Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber Abraham Joshua Heschel Emil Fackenheim Emmanuel Levinas Yeshayahu Leibowitz and more A key finding is that a shared negation binds God and the Jewish people together their joint refusal to submit to contentful constrictive definition
