MMA Science: A Training, Coaching, and Belt Ranking Guide David Zitnick, Roger Krah, W. Alex Edmonds, 2020-10. A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step. Whether a novice hobbyist or professional, those who purchase this book have just taken a huge step to accelerating their learning and performance related to the most sophisticated martial art in existence: Mixed Martial Arts (MMA). More than a sport, MMA is a true martial art that when taught and learned appropriately can be life-changing. It will develop you physically, mentally, and spiritually. Through our program, you will receive the most comprehensive and detailed curriculum ever created in MMA. We have applied the science of human behavior to identify and break down the most critical and fundamental techniques that have been successfully applied in MMA and found to significantly accelerate performance across sports. These fundamental approaches to learning, teaching, and skill refinement will help you as an MMA student or coach to develop a strong base that will accelerate learning and performance that is recognized and memorialized through our belt ranking system. As you progress, you will be able to rapidly increase learning by using our videos, drills, available online, along with the task analysis skill sheets included in this book to objectively measure and accelerate skill development. Whether you are seeking to enhance your own development through self-training and self-coaching or you are an instructor training and coaching others and would like to enhance your own ability, our system cuts right to the heart of the matter: it teaches how to automatically apply the right MMA technique in precisely the right way at exactly the right time. Not only does our book provide concrete strategies related to improving learning, training, and coaching, we also provide scientific and practical approaches for coping with fear and anxiety associated with fighting. This book reflects a combined 100 years of Martial Arts and Combat Sports training, complimented by formal education and real-world professional application of technologies rooted in psychology and the science of human behavior. As such, we are very excited to use our experience to introduce tradition, organization, and science to the MMA world. This comprehensive manuscript includes the following four books, all wrapped up in one: Training and Coaching Guide, Yellow Belt Task Analysis and Belt Ranking Guide, Orange Belt Task Analysis and Belt Ranking Guide, and Green Belt Task Analysis and Belt Ranking Guide. Each can be used by an instructor to greatly improve their ability to train and coach through the scientific principles at the root of a performance or by a student to dramatically accelerate their own learning. Why wait? Order our book right now to increase successful outcomes associated with the greatest martial art and sport in the world: Mixed Martial Arts.

Vaccaro,Melissa L. Swauger,2015-11-11 Unleashing Manhood in the Cage Masculinity and Mixed Martial Arts addresses the question Why do mixed martial arts participants endure grueling workouts and suffer through injury with little or no pay just to compete The answer is because the participants enjoy a form of idolization from their supporters each other and culture more generally which is linked to masculinity In fact MMA organizers from the very beginning purposefully created elements of the sport that are linked to dominant narratives about manhood In this context men don thin open fingered gloves lock themselves in a caged enclosure and slug it out in a fight with few rules to see who comes out on top This all occurs while ring girls in high heels and skin tight shirts and shorts stride around outside the cage holding signs and peddling t shirts The sum of these elements is the creation of a type of a publicly accessible and consumable form of masculinity The sport of mixed martial arts is a rich and intriguing space where the construction of gender can be explored through a sociological and ethnographic lens
