

MLA Documentation Exercise 1

Assignment: Create a works cited page (with title) using the following information. The list should be formatted and alphabetized correctly. Be sure to follow directions on the accompanying sheet to get spacing, indentation, etc. correct.

If it is not stated, you will need to determine what type of source the material is and create a citation following that format. Pay attention to the examples for each type of material offered on the accompanying sheet—often source information will provide more details than are required for MLA; you will then need to weed out the extraneous information.

1. The Handbook for Academic Cheaters, a book by Toby Fulwiler and Alan Hyakawa. This book was published by Blair-Prentice Publishers, Boston, Massachusetts, in 1998.
2. An interview that you conducted with John Laffin on March 17, 2001.
3. This journal article found via the Ebsco Host database on today's date. The article's title is The Lethal Femme Fatale in the Noir Tradition. The author is Jack Boozer, and the article appeared in the Journal of Film and Video, Volume 51 (Fall 1999), on pages 20-35.
4. An article entitled C is for Character, by John Leo, from the weekly magazine called U.S. News & World Report. The date of the issue was 11/29/99, and it appeared on pages 34-35.
5. A journal article found on The Chronicle of Higher Education web site. The article is called Toward a Culture of Academic Integrity; it was written by Donald L. McCabe and Patrick Drinan. It originally appeared in volume 46 of The Chronicle of Higher Education on Oct 15, 1999, on page i8. But you got it online, yesterday, at the following URL:

educational ice-breaker activities for every learning session Jen Schneider, 2023-04-14 The first five minutes of a classroom experience are critical The tone set in a session's opening minutes can significantly impact and influence in both positive and negative ways the quality and nature of the subsequent learning experience How students spend that time can also have a positive impact on their learning in both the short and long term When the opening minutes of a class are approached as an opportunity to build student connections collaboration and community all learners benefit As more and more learning experiences occur in synchronous and asynchronous online learning environments strategies that both welcome students to online sessions and support student learning are increasingly important Traditional ice breakers while typically shared with a goal of building community and student engagement can sometimes have unintended or even negative consequences on students This text shares a collection of powerful opening activities that are designed to simultaneously engage students build safe and connected classroom communities and support student learning All strategies are easily adapted and personalized to fit individual course and content needs including face to face synchronous online and asynchronous online learning contexts Shared activities are aligned with associated learning science research and incorporate strategies that have been shown to support student engagement and learning such as retrieval practice active recall spaced practice and interleaving among other evidence based instructional strategies
