Labor Cases ,2003 A full text reporter of decisions rendered by federal and state courts throughout the United States on federal and state labor problems with case table and topical index The Middle Sort of People in Provincial England, 1600-1750 H. R. French,2007-07-05 Exploring the origins of middle class status in the English provinces during a formative period of social and economic change this book provides the first comparative study of the nature of social identity in early modern provincial England It questions definitions of a middling group united by shared patterns of consumption and display and examines the bases for such identity in three detailed case studies of the middle sort in East Anglia Lancashire and Dorset Dr French identifies how the middling described their status and examines this through their social position in parish life and government and through their material possessions Instead of a coherent unified middle sort of people this book reveals division between self proclaimed parish rulers the chief inhabitants and a wider body of modestly prosperous householders who nevertheless shared social perspectives bounded within their localities By the eighteenth century many of these chief inhabitants were trying to break out of their parish pecking orders not by associating with a wider middle class but by modifying ideas of gentility to suit their circumstances and pockets French concludes as a result that while the presence of a distinct middling stratum is apparent the social identity of the people remained fragmented restricted by parochial society on the one hand and overshadowed by the prospect of gentility on the other He offers new interpretation and insights into the composition and scale of the society in early modern England Floral Management ,1998 Labor Relations Reference Manual ,1960 History of Irish Education from 1800: (with Special Reference to Manual Instruction). in Africa J. Vansina, 2014-06-06 This is a pioneering introduction to a subject that is still at an early stage of academic development. It aims to provide the reader with a systematic method for the historical understanding of African art. Professor Vansina considers the medium, technique, style, and meaning of art objects and examines the creative process through which they come into being. Numerous photographs and drawings illustrate his arguments and help to explain the changes that have taken place.

A Short History of Civilization Lynn Thorndike, 1926 Shaping the Netherlandish Canon Walter S. Melion, 1991 A treatise on Dutch art on par with Vasari's critical history of Italian art. Karel van Mander's Schilder Boeck or Book on Picturing has long been recognized for its critical and historical influence, and yet until now no comprehensive account of the book's conception, aims, and impact has been available. In this in-depth analysis of the content and context of Van Mander's work, Walter S. Melion reveals the Schilder Boeck's central importance to an understanding of northern Renaissance and Baroque art. By interpreting the terminology employed in the Schilder Boeck, Melion establishes the text's relationship to past and contemporary art theory. Van Mander is seen here developing his critical categories and then applying them to Ancient Italian and Netherlandish artists in order to mark changes within a culture and to characterize excellence for each region. Thus, Melion demonstrates how Van Mander revised both the structure and critical language of Vasari's Lives to refute the Italian's claims for the superiority of the Tuscan style and to clarify northern artistic traditions and the concerns of Netherlandish artists. A much needed corrective to the view that Dutch art of the period was lacking in theory, Melion's work offers a compelling account of a sixteenth and seventeenth century theoretical and critical perspective and shows how this perspective suggests a rereading of northern art.
