Inviting Transformation Presentational Speaking For A Changing World:

Inviting Transformation Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, 2019-01-03 The fourth edition of Inviting Transformation continues to offer an innovative approach to presentational speaking at a very reasonable price. The authors introduce readers to invitational rhetoric, teaching speakers to clarify ideas and to work to achieve understanding for all participants in an interaction. A primary goal of presentational speaking is to create an environment in which growth and change can occur for both the audience and the speaker. The text highlights four external conditions affecting transformational environments: safety, openness, freedom, and value, honoring the intrinsic worth of all individuals. To reflect respect for the diversity of the world, Sonja Foss and Karen Foss include options from many speaking traditions and practices to foster creativity. Discussions of all the processes of presenting, selecting a speaking goal, organizing ideas, elaborating on ideas, and delivering the presentation emphasize inclusive speaking practices. Sample presentations provide clear and contemporary examples of the best invitational speaking practices. The authors recognize readers as competent communicators and encourage them to think about and systematize their approaches to presentational speaking. The exceptionally accessible writing style is an aid to readers in thinking through strategies for meeting their interactional goals. Readers learn to design and deliver effective presentations for any speaking situation.

Inviting Transformation Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, 1994 This book discusses presentational speaking in diverse contexts and settings. The primary purpose of such speaking is to invite growth and change for both speaker and audience.

Preaching as Poetry Paul Scott Wilson, 2014-08-19 It is tempting for preachers in this digital age of plurality and diversity to offer quick sound bites and PowerPoint style presentations. These tend to invite a yes or no response as in mathematical equations. But if we are to reach Christians across the theological spectrum and invite non-Christians to seriously consider our faith, we must take a different approach. What is needed is greater attention to poetry and images meant to communicate the beauty of the faith and the wonder and mystery of God in everyday life. We must communicate the unity of our message of faith, the divine as truth and justice, and healing as expressions of God. Preaching as poetry, theopoetic preaching, allows for the bold imagery of scripture and the gentle invitation of art. Sermons can no longer always be neatly tied up perfectly linear with complete answers to every question. In Preaching as Poetry, Paul Scott Wilson teaches why this new approach is necessary today and demonstrates with multiple examples how it works in real sermons. He skillfully guides the reader to incorporate the classical values of beauty, goodness, and truth in every sermon and in ways that connect with congregants and listeners today.

A Practical Guide to Ethics Rita Manning, Scott R. Stroud, 2018-05-04 This essential new text is designed for courses in contemporary moral issues, applied ethics, and leadership. Emphasizing personal choice in the study of ethics, the authors take the reader on a journey of self-discovery rather than a mere academic survey of the field of ethics. A Practical Guide to Ethics: Living and Leading with Integrity helps students develop their skills in ethical decision making and put those decisions into effective practice. Its unique focus on leadership, especially the moral dimensions of understanding one's own values teaches students to understand and through dialog and negotiation communicate their own beliefs as a step to building coalitions with those who may hold different views It is also distinctive in combining ethical theory with both multicultural ethics Confucianism Hinduism Islam feminism and a practical orientation to moral decision making and leadership Theories of Human Communication Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2010-11-04

For almost four decades Theories of Human Communication has offered readers an engaging and informative guide to the rich array of theories that influence our understanding of communication The first edition broke new ground with its comprehensive discussion of theorizing by communication scholars Since that time the field has expanded tremendously from a small cluster of explanations and relatively unconnected theories to a huge body of work from numerous traditions or communities of scholarship The tenth edition covers both classic and recent theories created by communication scholars and informed by scholars in other fields Littlejohn and Foss organize communication theory around two intersecting elements contexts and theoretical traditions and emphasize the connections trajectories and relationships among the theories They provide clear accessible explanations that synthesize without oversimplifying Their extensive use of examples presents theorizing as a natural process and invites readers to reflect on their own experiences and to become active participants in continuing the conversation In addition to the authors lucid explanations of theories the text includes From the Source boxes in which the theorists share their perspectives on communication The extensive bibliography almost 1 200 entries and chapter citations are invaluable resources for more in depth study Skills for Academic and Career Success Dian

Carroll, 2013-09-16 Skills for Academic and Career Success focuses on the essential skills you need to be successful in your studies and in your future career This original textbook aims to improve and enhance your study skills it also introduces some important aspects of business and professional communication An integrated approach is used to bring together these key fields of academic skills and business communication competency The emphasis throughout the book is on practical applied learning It has been developed to complement Australian tertiary education curricula in the areas of study skills and professional communication and is designed to enhance learning outcomes for students within the Australian and Pan Asian context

Attitudes and Persuasive Communication Prof. Dr. Bilal Semih Bozdemir, Attitudes and Persuasive Communication Defining Attitudes Components and Functions Attitude Formation and Change Cognitive Dissonance Resolving Inconsistencies Persuasion Theories ELM and HSM Compliance Gaining Strategies Rhetorical Devices and Persuasive Tactics Ethical Considerations in Persuasive Communication Conclusion and Key Takeaways Women's Studies in Communication, 1995 A Speaker's Guidebook with The Essential Guide to Rhetoric Dan O'Hair, Rob

Stewart, Hannah Rubenstein, 2012-02-01 A Speaker's Guidebook with The Essential Guide to Rhetoric includes a full tabbed section that provides brief yet comprehensive coverage of rhetorical theory from the classical to the contemporary and its practical applications Engaging Communication in Conflict Stephen W. Littlejohn, Kathy Domenici, 2001 This book uses a communication perspective to address insights and methods in private mediation small group facilitation system design large scale interventions and public issue management      Socially Constructing Communication Gloria J. Galanes, Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz, 2009 The idea for this book originated at NCA's Summer Institute Catching Ourselves in the Act A Collaborative Planning Session to Enrich our Discipline through Social Constructionist Approaches The conference provided the opportunity to interact with like minded others to discuss how social construction approaches influence or should influence our work Another goal for the conference and for this book is to promote social construction approaches within the discipline We need to look forward by focusing on how the social construction perspective transforms our own work When we teach how can we best clarify the social construction principles we believe in and how can we convey the passion we feel for this approach How can we insure that our research practices are faithful to constructionist principles What practices can we or must we adopt to remain faithful to these principles Together the chapters in this volume address such questions with the intention of helping us take the next step forward This book extends the conversation about social constructionism approaches and invites others to participate in that conversation      The New Jersey Journal of Communication, 1997      Pre/Text, 1997      Communicating at Work Ronald Brian Adler, Jeanne Marquardt Elmhorst, 2005 The leading text in business communication Communicating at Work takes a pragmatic approach that features a strong multicultural focus a heavy emphasis on effective presentations and a pedagogical program that is designed to encourage group activities and skill building That plus clear writing and effective use of tables make the text an excellent teaching tool      Ethics in Human Communication Richard L. Johannesen, 1996 Johannesen has given readers a fourth edition rich with traditional contemporary perspectives on ethics its role in human interaction      The Writers Directory, 2013      Included in Communication Judith S. Trent, 2002 A practice oriented volume written by communication faculty for their colleagues and others who care about the retention and success of students of color in the discipline's gateway courses Associate editors Wenshu Lee Mark Lawrence McPhail and Dolores Valencia Tanno Consulting reviewer Orlando L. Taylor      The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover      Persuasion William Rogers, 2007 Persuasion Messages Receivers and Contexts covers key topics such as ethics and deception audience analysis nonverbal communication and culture and shows students how to develop critical skills as senders and receivers of persuasive messages The text presents contemporary research in an accessible and engaging format for students while also encouraging them to apply persuasion principles and theories to real world case studies like campaigns and news coverage Students are also guided to develop skills in public speaking debate courtroom communication interpersonal communication and more Persuasion features extended discussions of propaganda political persuasion advertising and sender receiver skills development The text covers research findings on persuasive effects and theories including theories of behavior and behavioral intention consistency elaboration likelihood dramatism classical rhetoric visual rhetoric and mass communication Filled with practical guidelines for creating and analyzing persuasive messages Persuasion is an ideal primary text for courses in persuasion persuasion and propaganda and persuasion and rhetoric

Rhetoric & Human Consciousness Craig R. Smith, 2003 This text illustrates the evolving definitions of rhetoric from myth display to persuasion symbolic inducement This history of rhetoric includes unique in depth investigations of Greco Roman medieval Renaissance modern existential postmodern thinking
