La pédagogie institutionnelle ce fut d'abord vers 1965 Freud, l'École Vasquez Oury mais aussi Rogers, Lobrot. Il y eut aussi l'influence des théoriciens auto-gestionnaires sur la pratique pédagogique d'instituteurs primaires, Fonvielle, Bessière ou de professeurs du secondaire et du supérieur. L'apassade, Lourau. Aujourd'hui ces différentes tendances continuent co-exister. Mais la pédagogie institutionnelle s'enrichit d'expériences nouvelles intégrant galement Reich et le Potentiel humain, bio-énergie, Gestalt. Pour Remi Hess, ce que transmet l'École, ce n'est pas un savoir mais une façon d'être, disciplinée, polie, respectueuse qui souffle le vent. Il propose d'analyser l'institution de la classe et la distance que le maître entretient avec l'élève en construisant des dispositifs de rencontre où l'affectivité des uns et des autres puisse s'exprimer librement. L'auteur ne se contente pas de faire un bilan critique de pratiques passées fort de son expérience d'élève et de professeur, il indique des voies de dépasement du mouvement.

Affirmant comme l'un des piliers fondateurs de la pédagogie institutionnelle, la dimension groupale n'est que rarement abordée et de façon imprécise. Voici une contribution sur la question du groupe dans le champ des pratiques de l'institutionnel en pointant les liens entre le versant pédagogique et psychothérapeutique de ces approches.
