the mind alone she must also be alive physically This realization stems from a heightened sexual experience Constance has only felt with Mellors suggesting that love can only happen with the element of the body not the mind David Herbert Richards D H Lawrence 11 September 1885 2 March 1930 was an English novelist poet playwright essayist literary critic and painter His collected works represent among other things an extended reflection upon the dehumanising effects of modernity and industrialisation Some of the issues Lawrence explores are emotional health vitality spontaneity and instinct Lawrence s opinions earned him many enemies and he endured official persecution censorship and misrepresentation of his creative work throughout the second half of his life much of which he spent in a voluntary exile which he called his savage pilgrimage At the time of his death his public reputation was that of a pornographer who had wasted his considerable talents E M Forster in an obituary notice challenged this widely held view describing him as The greatest imaginative novelist of our generation Later the Cambridge critic F R Leavis championed both his artistic integrity and his moral seriousness placing much of Lawrence s fiction within the canonical great tradition of the English novel Lady Chatterley's Lover D.
