Wetherill, 2021-09-02 La Place looks at a daughter's relationship with her father In a fragmented and retrospective way the narrator describes her feelings of separation and betrayal that arise when education and marriage place her in a social class with different values language tastes and behaviour She explores the ways in which individual experience is related to class and group attitudes and at the same time tells us a great deal about French society in general since the turn of the century It is a concentrated text cut through with irony and may be read in different ways La Place will be an accessible and exciting addition to French
