When and how do the SATs take place?

- The school is required to administer SATs throughout May, and all schools in England will be carrying out SATs at this time.

- If children are absent, they will have to do the test on return to school.

- We aim to make the SATs as __non threatening__ as possible, therefore they will take place in KS1 classrooms, with either your child's class teacher or another known adult organising the test or task.
