

Year 2 Writing Checklist

These checklists link to the EYF 2012 National Curriculum for writing. They are split into:

- Working Towards the Expected Standard
- Working at the Expected Standard
- Working at Greater Depth Within the Expected Standard

All of the statements are progressive written and across the year so that the majority of pupils will be working on their own year goals.

How to Use the Checklist

The goals can be used to track the attainment of individual pupils to highlight the progress of groups of students who are [meeting/writing beyond]

To judge that a pupil is working at a standard in English, track attainment throughout the school year which demonstrates that they write like a standard.

Year 2 Writing Checklist

Working Towards the Expected Standard:

Pupils can write sentences to form a short narrative about experiences (real and fictional), after discussion with the teacher.

identifying some sentences with capital letters and full stops representing spoken words with phonemes and representing spelling using correctly and looking phonically plausible at the end of words spelling some common exception words* forming lower case letters in the correct direction, starting right place forming lower case letters of the correct size relative to the writing using spacing between words

Year 2 Writing Checklist

Working at the Expected Standard:

Pupils can write a simple, coherent narrative about their experiences (real and fictional), after discussion with the teacher.

writing about real events, recording them simply and clearly identifying most sentences with capital letters and full stops	capital letters representing spoken words with phonemes and representing spelling using correctly	phonemes using present and past tense mostly correctly and consistently using punctuation (for / and / and) using some punctuation (after / / and / before) representing spoken words with phonemes and representing spelling using correctly spelling many 100 common exception words* writing capital letters and shapes of the correct size, position to the baseline and to lower case letters using spacing between words that reflects the use of the space

Year 2 Writing Checklist

Working at Greater Depth within the Expected standard:

Pupils can write effectively and coherently for different purposes, drawing on their reading to inform the content and grammar of their writing after discussion with the teacher.

making simple sentences, clauses and phrases; making corrections to their own writing

using the full range of punctuation (including apostrophes)	correctly to separate items in a list
using a range of punctuation (including apostrophes)	correctly to mark complete sentences in nouns and adjectives

spelling most common exception words* adding suffixes to spell most words correctly in their writing, e.g. -ment, -ness, -ful, -less, -ly using the diagonal and horizontal strokes needed to join letters in most of their writing

* These are detailed in the word lists within the spelling appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to complete the words that pupils should be able to spell.

* The rules for punctuation taught in the national curriculum, which is detailed within the grammar and punctuation appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 2).

The Learning and Teaching of Reading and Writing Naomi Flynn, Rhona Stainthorpe, 2006-07-11 This book provides a unique description of teacher pupil interaction during the Literacy Hour in good schools It is based on detailed observations in inner city primary schools that were recognised as effective and improving The analysis is informed by contemporary research into the development and teaching of early literacy The book provides practice based examples of how teachers and schools might adapt their delivery for literacy as they move to greater creativity in their teaching of reading and writing The analysis begins within the classrooms of three expert Key Stage 1 teachers and broadens out in to the wider setting of the schools and their senior management teams An important theme running throughout the book is how the three teachers were able to make exceptional provision for their pupils who were largely second language speakers and from socio economically disadvantaged groups The teachers successful practice grew from their understanding of both early literacy development and planning for individual need The information in this book will enable student teachers recently qualified teachers and teachers interested in enhancing their literacy teaching to develop their practice in a similarly successful way

The Linguistic Challenge of the Transition to Secondary School Alice Deignan, Duygu Candarli, Florence Oxley, 2022-12-30 This book provides a unique analysis and description of the linguistic challenges faced by school students as they move from primary to secondary school a major transition which some students struggle with emotionally and academically The study draws on a bespoke corpus of 2.5 million words of written materials and transcribed classroom recordings provided by the project's partner schools combines quantitative and qualitative approaches to the corpus data to explore linguistic variation across school levels registers and subjects describes the procedures of corpus compilation and analysis of written and spoken academic language showing how modern corpus tools can be applied to this far reaching social and educational issue uncovers differences and similarities between the academic language that school children are exposed to at primary and secondary school contrasting this against the backdrop of the non academic language that they encounter outside school This book is important reading for advanced students and researchers in corpus linguistics applied linguistics and teacher education It carries implications for policymakers and schools looking to support students at this critical point in their schooling The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The EAL Teaching Book Jean Conteh, 2019-05-25 This book is a complete guide to understanding learning from and teaching bilingual and EAL children in schools It begins by asking who are EAL learners and challenges some of the misconceptions about this group It goes on to examine language in depth providing focused theory to help teachers and trainees better understand the wider context of children's needs. This theory is supported by a wealth of information on practical teaching strategies and resources. It also covers planning across the curriculum for EAL, assessing EAL and bilingual learners and classroom organisation. New to this second edition is a chapter on using home languages and cultures in learning as well as many new case studies from practising teachers offering insight and knowledge on teaching this particular group.

The Primary English Encyclopedia Margaret Mallett, 2017-02-24. This newly updated user-friendly Primary English Encyclopedia addresses all aspects of the primary English curriculum and is an invaluable reference for all training and practising teachers. Now in its fifth edition, entries have been revised to take account of new research and thinking. The approach is supportive of the reflective practitioner in meeting National Curriculum requirements in England and developing sound subject knowledge and good classroom practice. While the book is scholarly, the author writes in a conversational style and includes reproductions of covers of recommended children's books and examples of children's writing and drawing to add interest. The encyclopedia includes over 600 entries, many expanded and entirely new for this edition, including entries on apps, blogging and computing, short definitions of key concepts, input on the initial teaching of reading, including the teaching of phonics and the other cue systems, extended entries on major topics such as speaking and listening, reading, writing, drama, poetry, non-fiction, bilingualism and children's literature, information on new literacies and new kinds of texts for children, discussion of current issues and input on the history of English teaching in the primary years, extended entries on gender and literacy, important references for each topic, advice on further reading and accounts of recent research findings, and a Who's Who of Primary English and lists of essential texts, updated for this new edition. This encyclopedia will be ideal for student teachers on BA and PGCE courses preparing for work in primary schools and primary school teachers. Anyone concerned with bringing about the informed and imaginative teaching of primary school English will find this book helpful and interesting.
