Displaced Comrades Ebony Nilsson, 2023-11-02 Exploring the lives of left wing Soviet refugees who fled the Cold War to settle in Australia this book uncovers how they adjusted to life under surveillance in the West

Trading Spaces Emma Hart, 2024-07-06 Looks at the shift from the marketplace as an actual place to a theoretical idea and how this shaped the early American economy When we talk about the economy the market is often just an abstraction While the exchange of goods was historically tied to a particular place capitalism has gradually eroded this connection to create our current global trading systems In Trading Spaces Emma Hart argues that Britain's colonization of North America was a key moment in the market's shift from place to idea with major consequences for the character of the American economy Hart's book takes in the shops auction sites wharves taverns fairs and homes of seventeenth and eighteenth century America places where new mechanisms and conventions of trade arose as Europeans re-created or adapted continental methods to new surroundings Since those earlier conventions tended to rely on regulation more than their colonial offspring did what emerged in early America was a less fettered brand of capitalism By the nineteenth century this had evolved into a market economy that would not look too foreign to contemporary Americans To tell this complex transnational story of how our markets came to be Hart looks back farther than most historians of US capitalism rooting these markets in the norms of seventeenth and eighteenth century Britain Perhaps most important this is not a story of specific commodity markets over time but rather is a history of the trading spaces themselves the physical sites in which the grubby work of commerce occurred and where the market itself was born

The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind Alternative Press Index ,2005 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
