Reading Problems Joyce Holt Jennings, JoAnne Schudt Caldwell, Janet W. Lerner, 2006 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali's pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty

Assessing Reading, 2008 This book contains a collection of formal and informal reading assessments for use with students in Grades k 12 These assessments assist the teacher in targeting areas of strength and weakness in monitoring student reading development and in planning appropriate instruction Unlike large scale achievement tests the majority of these assessments can be administered individually Each assessment was selected because it measures an important research based reading skill and because it is quick reliable and easy to use Each assessment provides clear and accurate individual student information The assessments included in this book are informal assessments designed to measure specific skills critical to successful reading Some of the assessments are curriculum based while others are criteria based depending on the purpose of the assessment Similarly some assessments target specific skills some are instruments for broader screening and some can be used for both types of assessment Spanish assessments are provided for the early grades where many students may still be in bilingual programs or may be receiving Spanish primary language instruction before transitioning to English programs Profile Forms and Class Records found in the Appendix provide an easy way for teachers to summarize assessment results Appended are 1 core Reading Assessment Profile Forms 2 core Reading Assessment Class Records 3 Performance Criteria for Fluency and Fluency Scores a Discussion 4 Assessment Driven Instruction a Systems Approach and 5 Resources for Assessing Reading Contributing authors include Orna Lenchner Michael Milone and Jacalyn Mahler

Assessment in Special Education Roger Pierangelo, George A. Giuliani, 2009 This text presents a uniquely practical approach to the topic of Assessment in Special Education The authors organize the material into a real world story by having each part and chapter of the text reflect the linear chronology of the assessment process used in schools Unlike other books this text is organized chronologically to present the overall process in a straight line a practical and useful pedagogy in itself for the novice teacher The text provides the practical tools necessary for a new teacher to understand the process of assessment in schools and then learn how to put it all together It provides future special educators comprehensive coverage of the latest tests and evaluation procedures for all areas of exceptionality for every age group for students with mild moderate and severe disabilities HIGHLIGHTS OF WHAT'S NEW IN THE THIRD EDITION New chapter on Response to Intervention RTI makes readers aware of the increased importance of multi tiered assessment in today's classrooms see Chapter 17 New information on Functional Behavioral Assessments FBA and Behavior Intervention Plans BIP see Chapter 11 New information on the various types of speech and language disorders often seen by teachers of Special Education see Chapter 13 Provides readers with a more comprehensive approach to the eligibility requirements necessary for a diagnosis to be made see Chapter 16 Updated and revised content for the discussed areas of disability including Learning Disabilities Speech and Language Disorders Mental Retardation or Intellectual Disabilities and Emotional Disturbance
