Tolstoi and Britain W.Gareth Jones,1995-11 Tolstoi both as writer and thinker exerted a compelling influence on English writers and social reformers In turn his own outlook on life and literary genius owed much to his keen response to British culture This book is a collection of previously published articles supplemented by excerpts translated from Tolstoi's own writings conveying the extent of this dynamic interchange and the reciprocal benefit gained by Britain and Russia as a result of this remarkable symbiosis of cultures An introduction by the editor traces the development of the interchange and places the various essays in their context Women Public Speakers in the United States, 1800-1925 Karlyn Kohrs
