The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature David Hopkins, Charles Martindale, Norman Vance, Rita Copeland, Patrick Cheney, Philip R. Hardie, Jennifer Wallace, 2012 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers' engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers' own cultural context This second volume and third to appear in the series covers the years 1558-1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading

Just and Unjust Military Intervention Stefano Recchia, Jennifer M. Welsh, 2013-09-26 Classical arguments about the legitimate use of force have profoundly shaped the norms and institutions of contemporary international society But what specific lessons can we learn from the classical European philosophers and jurists when thinking about humanitarian intervention preventive self defense or international trusteeship today The contributors to this volume take seriously the admonition of contextualist scholars not to uproot classical thinkers' arguments from their social political and intellectual environment Nevertheless this collection demonstrates that contemporary students scholars and policymakers can still learn a great deal from the questions raised by classical European thinkers the problems they highlighted and even the problematic character of some of the solutions they offered The aim of this volume is to open up current assumptions about military intervention and to explore the possibility of reconceptualizing and reappraising contemporary approaches Survey of Modern Fantasy Literature Frank Northen Magill,1983 Melanistic Magazine Volume 17 Karen Richards,Taneya Rogers,Terence Ngazimbi,Nigel Williams,Kyle Smith,2024-07-08 Volume 17 of Melanistic Magazine is focused on Black Entrepreneurs highlighting the hard work and perseverance of businesses in the community Contemplation and Freedom Benedict R. Shoup,Mary Frohlich,2025-04-22 How does prayer shape action How does sustained engagement in deep prayer shape our very freedom to act This volume explores the relationship between Christian contemplative prayer and the exercise of freedom Over the past half century the desire for a better integration of spirituality and theology has emerged as a significant theme in theological writing While the question of freedom has not been absent from this discourse this volume highlights it by bringing it to the very center of the conversation Eleven theologians explore the dialectical relationship between contemplation and freedom by engaging with a wide array of sources ranging from Maximus the Confessor to Edith Stein from Howard Thurman to Bernard Lonergan from the Tihhirine martyrs to M Shawn Copeland This symphony of voices unveils the methodological fruitfulness of placing contemplative prayer at the center of life theory and practice The Oxford Companion to Spirits and Cocktails David Wondrich,Noah Rothbaum,2021-10-20 The Oxford Companion to Spirits and Cocktails presents an in depth exploration of the world of spirits and cocktails in a ground breaking synthesis The Companion covers drinks processes and techniques around the world as well as those in the US and Europe It provides clear explanations of the different ways that spirits are produced including fermentation distillation and ageing alongside a wealth of new detail on the emergence of cocktails and cocktail bars including entries on key cocktails and influential mixologists and cocktail bars Attitudes & Arabesques ,1995-08 Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Stretching and Pregnancy Kit Laughlin,Jennifer Cristaudo,2001 Keeping fit during pregnancy is highly beneficial for the health of both mother and baby However many women remain at work during pregnancy and finding time for regular exercise can be difficult This book shows pregnant women how to develop and maintain their fitness at home It also provides breathing and relaxation exercises as well as a healthy eating plan Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998

 Samadzada,2022-01-14 This book chronologically documents the rise and fall of the major religions of the world and explores the role that various cultural factors such as dance trance music song and language have played in this evolution The role that leaders play in the evolution of religion is also discussed Starting from the primitive religions of hunter gatherer societies in which religion was not part of any institution the next stages of human life from the agricultural revolution to the modern religions of today are discussed Among the modern religions discussed are Judaism Buddhism Christianity Islam Scientology and numerous others The reader is further provided with a unique perspective on the potential good and evil aspects of religion and the very reality of the existence of a God or gods and the possible downfalls of the religious belief
