Knowles, executive director, Center for Urban School Improvement, University of Chicago Urban School Leadership, is a must read for anyone interested in the landscape of urban public education in America. Beverly Hall, superintendent, Atlanta Public Schools.

The Emancipatory Promise of Charter Schools Eric Rofes, Lisa M. Stulberg, 2012-02-01 This book opens up a critical conversation among progressive educators of various generations, races, perspectives, and social locations concerning one specific school reform initiative: charter schools. Eric Rofes and Lisa M. Stulberg bring together scholars who both study and actively participate in school choice reform and charge them to be bold in their questioning and assertive in their own ambivalence about this complex, controversial public issue and to include issues that are underexamined in the school literature, such as the impact of school choice on race and class politics and inequalities. The editors argue that charter schools are playing a powerful role in reviving participation in public education, expanding opportunities for progressive methods in public school classrooms, and generating new energy for community-based, community-controlled school initiatives. The result is a groundbreaking volume that pushes boundaries, questions assumptions, and rocks foundations of progressive thought.

Educational Measurement Robert L. Brennan, 2006-08-30 The importance of this fourth edition of Educational Measurement is to extensively update and extend the topics treated in the previous three editions. As such, the fourth edition documents progress in the field and provides critical guidance to the efforts of new generations of researchers and practitioners. This new edition of Educational Measurement is edited by Robert Brennan and jointly sponsored by ACE and the National Council on Measurement in Education. It provides in-depth treatments of important measurement topics, and the chapter authors are acknowledged experts in their respective fields.

NATIONAL COUNCIL ON MEASUREMENT IN EDUCATION is an organization incorporated for scientific, educational, literary, and charitable purposes, i.e., advancing of the science of measurement instruments and procedures, improving applications of measurement, and disseminating knowledge about measurement theory, techniques, and instrumentation.
