Jesus Freeze, Jay Parini, 2018-02-06 In Jesus Jay Parini turns the powerful narrative skill he's wielded over the course of a four decade career to a figure who has dominated our collective imagination and cultural iconography for over twenty centuries The main trend of modern theology has hinged on the notion of demythologizing Jesus Parini's audiobook seeks to re mythologize him considering the story in all its mythical radiance taking Jesus as the human face of God It asks What's so moving about Jesus's story that millions of people over two millennia have considered it a paradigm for living Far from dogmatic Parini looks at the many ways in which Jesus has been viewed and dramatizes the transformation from Jesus to Christ man to myth and obscure Jewish carpenter to someone who pointed a finger toward God and said with conviction This is the way Follow me

Bernhardt,2025-10-30 This book explores how the person and salvific significance of Jesus Christ can be understood within today's secular and religiously plural world Rather than adopting an exclusivist approach it presents Christology in a manner that steers clear of both rigid absolutism and reductive relativism At its core lies a thought provoking question how might Christology be interpreted not in opposition to but in dialogue with other religious traditions Engaging with biblical sources often overlooked strands of theological heritage and contemporary theological discourse the book offers a fresh perspective on the concept of incarnation It reinterprets it as representation moving beyond the traditional doctrine of Christ's two natures towards a more dynamic understanding of two fundamental relationships Jesus relationship with God and his relationship with humanity This work was originally published in German as Jesus Christus Repräsentant Gottes by Theologischer Verlag Zürich TVZ in 2021 This English edition has been translated from the original and adapted to the context of Anglo American theology and religious studies

God Sent His Son Cardinal Christoph Schönborn,Christoph von Schönborn,2010-01-01 In this work of Christology Christoph Cardinal Schönborn a world renowned theologian takes as his starting point the Apostle Paul's statement But when the time had fully come God sent for his Son born of woman born under the law so that we might receive adoption as sons Gal 4 4 5 Based on many years of lecturing on Christology Cardinal Schönborn's work moves from the solid conviction of faith that Jesus of Nazareth is the

Messiah of Israel the Son of the Living God through the development of the Church's understanding of this truth to the consideration of contemporary issues and the views of various modern theologians Cardinal Schonborn sees Christology as based on the original Illumination granted by the Father in manifesting his Son which divides as if through a prism into a rainbow of Christological themes Christology he writes in every phase of its development follows its path by this light in thy light do we see light Ps 36 10 Christology is always faith seeking understanding trying to understand that to which the believer already says Yes God Sent His Son has the comprehensiveness and scholarly precision of a textbook but the insights and personal relevance of a work of spirituality It carefully explores ancient and medieval questions but also modern issues of Christology

The Transgression of the Integrity of God Craig Keen, 2012-03-01 In this dark when we all talk at once some of us must learn to whistle In this comprehensive collection of his work Craig Keen's voice emerges as that of a theologian who has indeed learned to whistle In a day when much of what passes for academic theology is careful to maintain a safe distance from any determinate act of faith or work of praise Keen evinces a single minded determination to think and to speak to write and to live doxologically And whether writing or lecturing teaching or conversing Keen understands theology to be nothing less than an invitation to work out one's faith with fear and trembling Throughout this volume Keen argues that the life death and resurrection of Jesus disrupt all metaphysical attempts to determine the reality of God and suggests instead that theology is to be done liturgically and eucharistically as the work of a people whose labor is carried out with open hands free from all attempts to grasp and control Keen discusses doctrinal issues the Trinity incarnation creation as well as a number of critical theological concerns church and culture justice holiness Christian education in this light The result is a profound set of reflections on the ways in which the word of the cross simultaneously transgresses our constructions of God and gives us to live transgressively in love
