Isr Installation Status Report:

Installation Status Report Part I - Infrastructure Field Test After Action Report Military academy west point ny, 1993 Part I Infrastructure of the Installation Status Report ISR was field tested at 11 CONUS installations in July August 1993 The test was very successful in identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the ISR as a decision support system The test results have been briefed to all levels of the Army leadership to include the CSA General Sullivan was enthusiastic about the potential of the ISR as a Commander's tool to assist infrastructure related decisions made at all levels of the Army He approved a plan to retest Part I in Feb Apr 94 at the original test sites along with some additional installations to validate the system improvements made since the First test Part II Environment will also be tested during this time frame at these same installations The test installations validated the ISR in meeting its design objectives for their use MACOM response to the ISR was mixed Generally the MACOMs supported testing the ISR further to validate the cost factors and C Rating algorithms prior to using data in the budgeting process They support further testing also to validate improved facility standards and to identify efficient uses of the data at MACOM and DA level This report presents summaries of much of the ISR test data This test data should not be used in decision making and presentations of it in this report are clearly marked as For Test Purposes Only Cost factors C Rating algorithms facility requirements and assets data and facility standards from which this data was generated are all being refined to improve the overall ISR system Test results support that this data will be very useful to decision makers however the accuracy of the test data is questionable until system enhancements are completed AR 210-14 07/19/2012 INSTALLATION STATUS REPORT PROGRAM, Survival Ebooks Us Department Of Defense, www.survivalebooks.com, Department of Defense, Delene Kvasnicka, United States Government US Army, United States Army, Department of the Army, U. Installation Status Report Part I - Infrastructure Part II-Environment Expanded Field Test After Action Report, 1995 Results of the initial field test of Part I Infrastructure of the ISR were briefed to the Army leadership in the 1st quarter of FY94 These briefings culminated in the CSA directing an expanded field test of Part I Infrastructure and an initial field test of Part II Environment When briefed on the results of this expanded field test the Chief of Staff Army approved CONUS implementation of the ISR Part I Infrastructure for 3rd quarter FY95 The CSA directed OASA FM and ORCEN to do more work on Part II before it is implemented Army wide The ISR development team received feedback from test installations by conducting in progress assistance and validation visits to 24 of the 25 test sites through feedback surveys completed by installation commanders and ISR action officers and through post test teleconference after action reviews Some of the key learning points from this feedback were 1 Installation Commanders gave strong support to the idea of using C ratings to describe infrastructure The current ISR area structure is adequate to cover the major types of infrastructure found on most posts 2 Installation commanders and action officers do not feel very confident in the costing or resource aspects of the ISR 3 Both the 0 3 Directorate of Plans and Training and the Directorate of Public works DPW office are the main activities used as an installation s lead ISR office 4 The inspection process is most efficiently completed using both centralized teams for common facilities e g installation utility systems and individual facility users 5 The facility requirements and assets data edit process is needed for the ISR to accurately portray infrastructure conditions

Installation Status Report. Part II - Environment Robert Plummer, Military academy west point ny operations research center, 1996 This after action report is the fourth in a series on the Installation Status Report The purpose of the ISR Part II is to provide a macro level status of environmental conditions on installations evaluated against Army wide set of standards The ODEP in the ACSIM in conjunction with the AEC developed the initial set of standards based upon the ECAS These standards were reviewed by the MACOM and installations involved in the test of the ISR How the Army Runs: A Senior Leader Reference Handbook, 2011-2012 U.S. Army War College, 2013-05-20 The U S Army War College USAWC is proud to present the 28th Edition of How the Army Runs A Senior Leader Reference Handbook 2011 2012 Publication of this text at this time when the Army has been at war for almost a decade has almost completed restructuring of its operating force and is addressing the structure of the generating force as well as completing formidable base closure and restationing actions gives credence to the enduring truth that in order to be successful the Army must sustain and improve itself while it is fully committed to the Nation s bidding The systems and processes documented and explained in this work are designed to do just that This text was prepared under the direction of the faculty of the Department of Command Leadership and Management It is intended to be used in an academic environment during the study of the systems and processes used to develop and sustain trained and ready combat forces to be used by the Combatant Commanders How the Army Runs: A Senior Leader Reference Handbook, 2017-2018 (31st Edition) U.S. Army War College, 2018-11-19 This text explains and synthesizes the functioning and relationships of numerous Defense Joint and Army organizations systems and processes involved in the development and sustainment of trained and ready forces for the Combatant Commanders It is designed to be used by the faculty and students at the U S Army War College as well as other training and educational institutions as they improve their knowledge and understanding of How the Army Runs We are proud of the value that senior commanders and staffs place in this text and are pleased to continue to provide this reference AR 600-85 12/28/2012

Installations of the United States Army: The Installation Status Report Part 1- Infrastructure Timothy

Trainor, Military academy west point ny operations research center, 1995 This technical report provides closure to the Operations Research Center's ORCEN's work on the Installation Status Report Part I Infrastructure This report is a follow on to Technical Report Numbers FY 92 91 1 and FY 93 92 1 prepared by Majors Frye and Harmon respectively This report also summarizes the information provided in the ISR Part I Infrastructure Field Test After Action Report dated 18 November 1993 and the ISR Part I Infrastructure Part II Environment Expanded Field Test After Action Report dated 1 April 1995 both compiled by Major Trainor The final form of the ISR approved by the Chief of Staff Army CSA for fielding at all CONTUS installations is contained for historical reference in Appendix D A copy of the decision briefing presented to the CSA is given in Appendix E The Army secretariat identified a need to articulate the Army's infrastructure problems in a manner that decision makers throughout the chain of command could understand The problem was that several detailed engineering reports were used to evaluate infrastructure These reports presented small bits of information that were difficult to tie together to present the big picture of true infrastructure revitalization needs Hence the Army could not form an effective infrastructure renewal strategy that complemented force and installation restructuring strategies The development of the ISR by the ORCEN represents a systems engineering solution to an Army wide problem The ORCEN defined the problem performed a needs analysis developed a system model field tested and refined the model twice and successfully briefed the model and test results through the key Army decision makers Major David Frye tackled the problem definition and needs analysis of the Army's infrastructure dilemma

Technology for the United States Navy and Marine Corps, 2000-2035: Becoming a 21st-Century Force National Research Council, Commission on Physical Sciences, Mathematics, and Applications, Naval Studies Board, Committee on Technology for Future Naval Forces, Panel on Human Resources, 1997-12-07 The future national security environment will present the naval forces with operational challenges that can best be met through the development of military capabilities that effectively leverage rapidly advancing technologies in many areas The panel envisions a world where the naval forces will perform missions in the future similar to those they have historically undertaken These missions will continue to include sea control deterrence power projection sea lift and so on The missions will be accomplished through the use of platforms ships submarines aircraft and spacecraft weapons guns missiles bombs torpedoes and information manpower materiel tactics and processes acquisition logistics and so on Accordingly the Panel on Technology attempted to identify those technologies that will be of greatest importance to the future operations of the naval forces and to project trends in their development out to the year 2035 The primary objective of the panel was to determine which are the most critical technologies for the Department of the Navy to pursue to ensure U S dominance in future naval operations and to determine the future trends in these technologies and their impact on Navy and Marine Corps superiority A vision of future naval operations ensued from this effort These technologies form the base from which products platforms weapons and capabilities are built By combining multiple technologies with their future attributes new systems and subsystems can be envisioned Technology for the United States Navy and Marine Corps 2000 2035 Becoming a 21st Century Force Volume 2 Technology identifies those technologies that are unique to the naval forces and whose development the Department of the Navy clearly must fund as well as commercially dominated technologies that the panel believes the Navy and Marine Corps must learn to adapt as quickly as possible to naval applications Since the development of many of the critical technologies is becoming global in nature some consideration is given to foreign capabilities and trends as a way to assess potential adversaries capabilities Finally the panel assessed the current state of the science and technology S T establishment and processes within the Department of the Navy and makes recommendations that would improve the efficiency and effectiveness of this vital area The panel s findings and recommendations are presented in this report
