Jesus Is Lord Christology Yesterday And Today:

Jesus is Lord Donald Macleod, 2000 Donald Macleod is able to explain complex thoughts with simplicity and clarity This is his contribution to the debate on Christology Christ's Humanity in Current and Ancient Controversy: Fallen or Not? E. Jerome Van Kuiken, 2017-07-13 Was Christ's human nature fallen even sinful From the 18th century to the present this view has become increasingly prominent in Reformed theological circles and beyond despite vigorous opposition Both sides on the issue see it as vital for understanding the nature of salvation Each side s advocates appeal to or critique the Church Fathers This book reviews the history and present state of the debate then surveys the connections distinctions and patristic interpretations of five of the modern fallenness views proponents Edward Irving Karl Barth T F Torrance Colin Gunton and Thomas Weinandy and five of its opponents Marcus Dods the Elder A B Bruce H R Mackintosh Philip Hughes and Donald Macleod The book verifies the views of the ten most cited Fathers five Greek Irenaeus Athanasius Gregory Nazianzen Gregory Nyssen and Cyril of Alexandria and five Latin Tertullian Hilary of Poitiers Ambrose Augustine and Leo the Great The study concludes by sketching the implications of its findings for the doctrines of the Immaculate Conception sin sanctification The "Man Christ Jesus" Stephen Oliver Stout, 2011-06-17 Does the Apostle Paul have any use for the person of Jesus presented in the Gospels Critical scholarship thinks not but this book argues that Paul not only mentions more than seventy specific details of the historical Jesus but he also commends the character of Jesus and echoes His teachings repeatedly in his letters and sermons in full agreement with the Gospel accounts Stout examines Paul's intriguing description of the Man Christ Jesus 1 Tim 2 5 and suggests that this title fulfills the OT expectation of God appearing in human history as a man In his incarnated humanity the Man Christ Jesus accomplished salvation in the historical events of his life and death and in his resurrected humanity he appeared to Paul on the Damascus Road rooting Paul s Christology deeply in human experience Furthermore Stout shows how Paul rests his concept of salvation on a neglected aspect of his doctrine that the entire church is associated with the historical events of the life death and resurrection of Jesus an association which also unites his church with one another in fellowship and service This book then demonstrates that Paul s gospel rests upon Jesus as a man of history who brings salvation into human history in his life death and exaltation as the Man Christ Jesus

Theosis in the Theology of Thomas Torrance Dr Myk Habets, 2013-05-28 Torrance s vision of Theosis deification divinisation is explored through his doctrine of creation and anthropology his characterisation of the incarnation his accounts of reconciliation and union with Christ and his theology of church and sacraments Myk Habets study distinguishes Torrance s Reformed vision of theosis from other possible accounts of salvation as divinisation as they are found for instance within patristic thought and Eastern Orthodoxy This book presents the first critique of the theology of T F Torrance to focus on theosis and examines a model of theosis within the realm of reformed theology built upon Western theology Theology in Transposition Myk Habets, 2013-11-01 T F Torrance was one of the most significant English language theologians of the 20th century known extensively for his curatorship of the English translation of Barth's Church Dogmatics but also for his own prodigious theological scholarship The complexity and astonishing breadth of Torrance s output however have made assessment and appropriation markedly difficult This volume seeks to rectify that lack of assessment through careful exposition of the vital centers and interconnections within Torrance s theology alongside constructive appraisal and critique of his contributions to contemporary theology A Charismatic Model of the Church David Y.T. Lee, 2018-06-11 Edward Irving 1792 1834 has been known as a controversial pastor theologian in nineteenth century Britain particularly given his belief that Christ took on sinful flesh in His incarnation This book focuses on Irving s teaching of the church as the body of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and the eschatological community in holiness It explores Irving s emphasis upon the exalted humanity of Christ after His resurrection in relation to the church Such a Christ centred and Spirit empowered concept of the church has relevance to the twenty first century church in China as the Chinese church leaders attempt to reconstruct a contemporary theology of the church Priorities for the Church Donald Macleod, 2003 Jesus promised that as long as the earth remains his church will continue and it s a good job he did When we survey the church and how it relates to the world we have to wonder why he would bother The church is not the building nor is it the structure of government it is a body of believers Christians make up the church and it is our responsibility to prayerfully think through how we can affect the situation sitting idly by is no longer an option As the church drifts along splintered distracted all too willing to slip it theological moorings and often showing a remarkable lack of love its influence on society dwindles either becoming indistinguishable from the world or becoming so unrelated that is appears to be a relic of an entirely different era Donald Macleod brings his customary flourish to this most pressing topic His seemingly effortless ability to communicate complicated issues ensures that the message he conveys is clear Engaging with Barth David Gibson, Daniel Strange, 2009-03 This volume aims to engage with Karl Barth's questions and answers on a range of topics vital to Christian theology Specifically whether by going beyond behind or against Barth the chapters presented here attempt to provide a contemporary orientation to certain aspects of Barth's theology that can be deemed problematic from the standpoint of historic confessional evangelicalism Why engage with Barth And why the particular approach of this book The answer to the first question is that Barth's significance as arguably the greatest theologian of the twentieth century increasingly being recognized in an ongoing renaissance of international Barth scholarship means that Barth provides both opportunity and challenge for evangelicalism There is renewed interest in the question of how evangelicals should or should not appropriate Barth Given the sheer diversity within worldwide evangelicalism a consensus is unlikely to be reached Be that as it may in a range of areas evangelical theology stands to gain from careful and critical listening to what Barth has to say Iesus Christ Our Lord C. Norman Kraus, 2004-08-06 In response to readers comments this revised edition provides helpful clarifications charts and expanded notes and references Kraus in a theological description of Jesus Christ offers answers to questions of Jesus identity and the nature of the revelation salvation which came through him This anticipates his volume God Our Savior dealing with implications of Christ's revelation for other data of theology such as God humankind the Holy Spirit church and eschatology For many years the idea of vicarious suffering to atone for the sins of humanity has not been self evident in Western culture to say nothing of the cultures of Asia Western theologians have presupposed Roman categories of guilt and legal penalty as the framework for their explanations However this has been unsatisfactory in cultures where social tradition and shame are primary moral sanctions Observing that the biblical cultural context was more oriented to shame than to a legal concept of guilt Kraus has reinterpreted the meaning and efficacy of the cross as the means of God's salvation Such a reinterpretation requires that one also reevaluate the theological definition of Jesus person How one understands what he did for us is closely related to how one understands who he was His identity and role mutually impact each other Thus one must ask Who was this one who reconciled us to God by suffering the shame of our sin In answer Kraus finds concepts of self identity and self revelation most helpful Jesus the self revelation of God to us is God giving himself to us That self revelation comes as a self giving and only in the form of a genuinely personal historical and human relationship In all of this the author intends to present an authentically biblical picture of Jesus but in the context of modern language and thought forms
