Hardware Trade Journal ,1929 A Pearl in the Storm Tori Murden McClure,2009-04-07 In the end writes Tori McClure

I know I rowed across the Atlantic to find my heart but in the beginning I wasn t aware that it was missing During June 1998 Tori McClure set out to row across the Atlantic Ocean by herself in a twenty three foot plywood boat with no motor or sail Within days she lost all communication with shore but nevertheless she decided to keep going Not only did she lose the sound of a friendly voice she lost updates on the location of the Gulf Stream and on the weather Unfortunately for Tori 1998 is still on record as the worst hurricane season in the North Atlantic In deep solitude and perilous conditions she was nonetheless determined to prove what one person with a mission can do When she was finally brought to her knees by a series of violent storms that nearly killed her she had to signal for help and go home in what felt like complete disgrace Back in Kentucky however Tori's life began to change in unexpected ways She fell in love At the age of thirty five she embarked on a serious relationship for the first time making her feel even more vulnerable than sitting alone in a tiny boat in the middle of the Atlantic She went to work for Muhammad Ali who told her that she did not want to be known as the woman who almost rowed across the Atlantic Ocean And she knew that he was right In this thrilling story of high adventure and romantic quest Tori McClure discovers through her favorite way the hard way that the most important thing in life is not to prove you are superhuman but to fully to embrace your own humanity With a wry sense of humor and a strong voice she gives us a true memoir of an explorer who maps her world with rare emotional honesty Circular ... ,1928 The Goulds M'f'g.
