No sooner do the Southern sisters discover a common interest in some local art when they're arguing the artistic merits of some well-coiffured heads at a gallery opening. A few hours later, one of those pretty ladies ends up dead, with not a hair out of place. The other shows up on Patricia Anne's doorstep, dazed, disheveled, and telling a wild tale of a narrow escape from some deadly cuts. It's during the Depression, and her application has just been turned down to join an expedition to the Amazon. What's she to do? Perhaps get a job as a department store salesgirl. Anything to tide her over until the next assignment. There's a knock on the door. Who could this be in the middle of the night? Your Uncle Manfred Moon has died and left you as his heir to the Moon fortune. You are now one of the richest women in the country, he says. Mona's response is to point her revolver in his face.
