My previous article, I discussed the basic features of TeX, a more sophisticated system for the printing of documents. The following comments relating to the TeX's math mode for the mathematical writing requires to use an alternative TeX family as per suggestion – without needing to rely on an external computer. It can be accessed in this way, I will explain how to install the TeX system and configure it to suit your PC's needs for your TeX.

caveat: my own experience, teaching the Page example, is with and with out both great Johns Hopkins students. I followed the procedure before and my primary teaching experience. I have not experienced any difficulties with my results. I have been using Page example.

NOTE: Although the estimated Standard Error may seem to show (2) is "correct", it should not be taken literally as the true and correct solution.
