

Mirrors, Windows, & Sliding Glass Doors

Mirrors

Mirrors are books that reflect students' experiences, identities, and cultures. These books feature characters and situations that are relatable to the reader. They are mirrors because they show the reader a reflection of themselves.

Windows

Windows are books that give its reader a look into the lives, cultures, and experiences of people different from them. These books show diverse perspectives and broaden the reader's understanding of the world. They are windows because they let you look into someone else's world.

Sliding Glass Doors

Sliding glass door books show diverse experiences and invite the reader to fully immerse themselves in a different world. They are sliding glass doors because they allow you to look and step into someone else's world, giving the reader an opportunity to understand and connect with different perspectives.
