Nonfiction Craft Lessons

JoAnn Portalupi, Ralph J. Fletcher, 2001 Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students Most young writers are not intimidated by personal narrative fiction or even poetry but when they try to put together a teaching book report or persuasive essay they often feel anxious and frustrated JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher believe that young nonfiction writers supply plenty of passion keen interest and wonder Teachers can provide concrete strategies to help students scaffold their ideas as they write in this challenging genre Like the authors best selling Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K-8 this book is divided into sections for K-2, 3-4 and middle school grades 5-8 students These divisions reflect various differences between emerging competent and fluent writers In each section you'll find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that's most appropriate for that particular age In the K-2 section for example a number of craft lessons focus on the all about or concept book In the 3-4 section there are several lessons on biography In the 5-8 section a series of lessons addresses expository writing Throughout the book each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy to read format Every lesson features three teaching guidelines Discussion A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context How to Teach It Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting Resource Material Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer more authoritative and more organized Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them Be sure to look at the When Students Write videotapes too Revisiting the Reading

Workshop Barbara Orehovec, Marybeth Alley, 2003 Strategies and activities to develop an effective reading workshop program Sound Systems Anna Lyon, 2003 Sound Systems features separate sections on phonics instruction in pre K K first and second grade classrooms detailing how instructional needs in phonics change over time as students acquire new skills throughout the primary years Jacket Organizing and Managing the Language Arts Block Lesley Mandel Morrow, 2003-01-01 This book offers essential guidance to preservice and inservice teachers seeking to create revise or add new strategies to the teaching of the language arts block The focus is on how to implement effective strategies in the context of a well planned classroom and a smoothly choreographed daily schedule In a series of vivid case studies Lesley Mandel Morrow brings to life the methods used by exemplary teachers to create rich student friendly learning environments for children in grades K 4 No component of organizing the language arts block is omitted including setting up and running classroom learning centers assessing different instructional needs conducting whole class and small group meetings and linking language arts to content area instruction Enhancing the practical utility of the book are sample daily schedules and classroom management tips for each grade level along with dozens of reproducible learning activities lesson plans and assessment and record keeping tools Raising Literacy Achievement in High-Poverty Schools Eithne Kennedy, 2014-01-03 This book shares lessons gleaned from a two year intervention in a high poverty school which was highly successful in significantly narrowing the literacy achievement gap and in raising children s motivation and engagement in literacy both inside and outside school Kennedy argues that there is much that disadvantaged schools can do to close the gap but this is more likely to occur when a research based approach to instruction with a dual emphasis on cognitive skills and motivation and engagement assessment and professional development is undertaken First Grade Writers Michelle Denise Haycock, 1991 In the Middle Nancie Atwell, 1987 Relates the experiences of an eighth grade teacher and her students who abandoned skill drill approaches and became collaborating readers and writers The Workshop Approach Elinor Parry Ross, 1996 Introduction to Early Childhood Education Francis Wardle, 2003 Provides students with a comprehensive insight into multiple facets of the early childhood field from history and philosophy to technology diversity play and the role of teachers and caregivers Recognized as a national expert in CDA multicultural education outdoor environments developmentally appropriate practice and child development Francis Wardle brings us this comprehensive introduction to the field of early childhood care and education infants to age 8 This text addresses a wide variety of programs including global early childhood education setting up and maintaining indoor and outdoor environments and strategies teaching literacy math and science Included throughout the text are discussions of brain research diversity checklists an emphasis on parent involvement and inclusion how young children learn and looking at teachers and caregivers as professionals Language, Literacy and the Child Lee Galda, Bernice E. Cullinan, Dorothy S. Strickland, 1993

Coordinating Instruction in Two Comprehensive School Reforms Danae de los Ríos, 2007 Becoming Teammates Charlene Klassen Endrizzi, 2008 Describes a three phase plan for elementary level teachers to develop literacy partnerships with children s families Becoming Teammates Teachers and Families as Literacy Partners offers a bold new look at how teachers and families can work together to build family school relationships that value and respect each other s perspectives on literacy Featuring the voices of parents teachers graduate students and preservice teachers Charlene Klassen Endrizzi s book explores how families and educators can combine their resources to become essential teammates and partners in children s literacy development Endrizzi recognizes that family school partnerships are a complex undertaking and offers suggestions for three phases of implementation In Phase 1 teachers begin by extending to family members a variety of invitations to communicate via surveys ceremonies and celebrations thus building an awareness and understanding of the literacy learning that occurs both in school and at home Phase 2 explores how teachers can initiate a two way literacy conversation with families through dialogue journals curricular newsletters and literacy backpacks The final stage has teachers forging partnerships with parents at Family Literacy Gatherings during which they explain and demonstrate literacy beliefs and practices discover and appreciate the families funds of knowledge and acknowledge and nurture the emerging parent advocates Endrizzi challenges teachers to take an active role in developing partnerships by considering a myriad of ways to build bridges of understanding with their students first learning partners Teaching Children to Read and Write Robert B.
