If Einstein Ran the Schools Thomas Armstrong Ph.D., 2019-10-11 Many world class thinkers and creators have been concerned about the state of education in the United States Discover their thoughts on how children really learn and what teachers must do to optimally tap children's latent abilities During the last three decades education reformers have pushed standardized testing and policies like No Child Left Behind and Common Core to improve test scores and proficiency in basic skills However during this period that author Thomas Armstrong calls the miseducation of America a number of troubling trends have surfaced including a decrease in creative thinking scores among children in kindergarten through third grade Rather than focus on what's wrong with the education system that has produced these outcomes Armstrong lays out what creative thinkers know about how children should be educated In an extended thought experiment he asks what would happen if we turned the reins of educational policy over not to the politicians and educational bureaucrats but to eminent thinkers and creators like Albert Einstein Pablo Picasso Martin Luther King Jr Rachel Carson Doris Lessing Jane Goodall and other seminal culture builders What might they say about the best way to educate a child If Einstein Ran the Schools suggests that the answers to this intriguing question should guide future efforts to reform our nation s schools

Children and Companion Animals: Psychosocial, Medical, and Neurobiological Implications Andrea M. Beetz,Lynette A. Hart,Brinda I. Jegatheesan,Naoko Koda,2018-08-16 Children and companion animals seem to have a natural affinity towards each other Most children desire a relationship with their own companion animals or at least demonstrate an interest to interact with animals in general Living with companion animals or interacting with animals may have psychosocial neurobiological or medically relevant effects on typically developing children and juveniles as well as those with diverse and special needs In this eBook we present several articles addressing the relationships between children juveniles and animals in different countries including Austria Germany Jamaica Japan the United Kingdom and the United States Three articles discuss approaches in animal assisted education including animal keeping and animal assisted interventions in schools and an experimental study investigating immediate effects of dogs on reading competence and accompanying stress reactions with cortisol and behavior Other articles address topics involving children and their companion animals including dog walking by children and juveniles risks of dog bites by the family dog selection of pet dogs for families with a child with autism spectrum disorder ASD and the relationships that children with ASD have with their family cats The interactions between children juveniles and animals addressed in this eBook provide new insights into some scarcely investigated themes and underline the significance of animals in children s lives
