Life Science 2013 Final Exam Grade 10:

Meeting the Challenges to Measurement in an Era of Accountability Henry Braun, 2016-01-29 Under pressure and support from the federal government states have increasingly turned to indicators based on student test scores to evaluate teachers and schools as well as students themselves The focus thus far has been on test scores in those subject areas where there is a sequence of consecutive tests such as in mathematics or English language arts with a focus on grades 4-8 Teachers in these subject areas however constitute less than thirty percent of the teacher workforce in a district Comparatively little has been written about the measurement of achievement in the other grades and subjects This volume seeks to remedy this imbalance by focusing on the assessment of student achievement in a broad range of grade levels and subject areas with particular attention to their use in the evaluation of teachers and schools in all It addresses traditional end of course tests as well as alternative measures such as portfolios exhibitions and student learning objectives In each case issues related to design and development psychometric considerations and validity challenges are covered from both a generic and a content specific perspective The NCME Applications of Educational Measurement and Assessment series includes edited volumes designed to inform research based applications of educational measurement and assessment Edited by leading experts these books are comprehensive and practical resources on the latest developments in the field The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Modernising the People's Liberation Army James Char, 2024-06-03 This volume examines the progress made by the Chinese military the People's Liberation Army PLA as it strives to meet its commander in chief's directive to transform itself into a more capable fighting force The book tracks the reforms undertaken by the PLA in meeting its commander in chief's grand objectives set at the 2015 Central Military Commission Reform Work Meeting for China's armed forces to transform themselves into a more professional and modern military Focusing on those changes since late 2016 at corps level and below the first and second sections of the volume document the subsequent force structure and operational changes to the PLA's four conventional services and two newly established PLA branches the Strategic Support Force and Joint Logistic Support Force To that end the contributors examine the reforms promulgated by the Chinese high command and measure them against observable developments in the PLA's power projection capabilities In view of how the instrumentalization of military power is writ large in Beijing's strategic calculus and in regional hotspot issues the final part of the book also provides pathbreaking insights into two critical but not so well understood phenomena the now regular PLA aerial activities in the Taiwan Strait and the PLA Navy's submarine operations in the South China Sea This book will be of much interest to students of East Asian security Chinese politics and military and strategic studies in general
