Peacebuilding and Friction Annika Björkdahl, Kristine Höglund, Gearoid Millar, Jair van der Lijn, Willemijn Verkoren, 2016-03-02 This book aims to understand the processes and outcomes that arise from frictional encounters in peacebuilding when global and local forces meet Building a sustainable peace after violent conflict is a process that entails competing ideas political contestation and transformation of power relations This volume develops the concept of friction to better analyse the interplay between global ideas actors and practices and their local counterparts The chapters examine efforts undertaken to promote sustainable peace in a variety of locations such as Cambodia Sri Lanka Afghanistan and Sierra Leone These case analyses provide a nuanced understanding not simply of local processes or of the hybrid or mixed agencies ideas and processes that are generated but of the complex interactions that unfold between all of these elements in the context of peacebuilding intervention The analyses demonstrate how the ambivalent relationship between global and local actors leads to unintended and sometimes counterproductive results of peacebuilding interventions The approach of this book with its focus on friction as a conceptual tool advances the peacebuilding research agenda and adds to two ongoing debates in the peacebuilding field the debate on hybridity and the debate on local agency and local ownership In analysing frictional encounters this volume prepares the ground for a better understanding of the mixed impact peace initiatives have on post conflict societies This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution security studies and international relations in general

The Future of the Professions Richard Susskind, Daniel Susskind, 2022-03-31 This book predicts the decline of today's professions and introduces the people and systems that will replace them In an internet enhanced society according to Richard Susskind and Daniel Susskind we will neither need nor want doctors teachers accountants architects the clergy consultants lawyers and many others to work as they did in the 20th century The Future of the Professions explains how increasingly capable technologies from telepresence to artificial intelligence will place the practical expertise of the finest specialists at the fingertips of everyone often at no or low cost and without face to face interaction The authors challenge the grand bargain the arrangement that grants various monopolies to today s professionals They argue that our current professions are antiquated opaque and no longer affordable and that the expertise of their best is enjoyed only by a few In their place they propose five new models for producing and distributing expertise in society The book raises profound policy issues not least about employment they envisage a new generation of open collared workers and about control over online expertise they warn of new gatekeepers in an era when machines become more capable than human beings at most tasks With a new preface exploring recent critical developments this updated edition builds on the authors groundbreaking research into more than a dozen professions Illustrated with numerous examples from each this is the first book to assess and question the relevance of the professions in the 21st century Look Japan ,2002 Buying your Self on the Internet Phillips Andelka M. Phillips,2019-07-17 This book examines the rise of the direct to consumer genetic testing industry DTC and its use of wrap contracts It uses the example of DTC to show the challenges that disruptive technologies pose for societies and for regulation It also uses the wrap contracts of DTC companies to explore broader issues with online contracting Public Libraries ,1918 The Breeder's Gazette ,1914 The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Johann Jakob Herzog,Albert Hauck,Samuel Macauley Jackson,Charles Colebrook Sherman,George William Gilmore,1909 The Country Gentleman ,1870 A journal for the farm the garden and the fireside devoted to improvement in agriculture horticulture and rural taste to elevation in mental moral and social character and the spread of useful knowledge and current news Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1906 The Nation ,1904 Journal of the American Medical Association ,1915 Includes proceedings of the association papers read at the annual sessions and lists of current medical literature The American Bookseller ,1885 Scientific American ,1900 The Christian Advocate ,1906 Gas Journal ,1883
