Empowering Novice Academics for Student Success Dr Johann Hugo, 2021-04-26 This book is essential for academics that enter the field of higher education and training as it focuses on preparing teachers and trainers to respond appropriately to student success challenges Student success is a burning issue both globally and locally While student achievement is determined by a combination of factors teachers and their teaching practices do matter Higher education teachers are expected to fulfil different roles at different times such as planning for curriculum implementation mentorship and coaching facilitating learning resource development and student assessment Against this background the primary purpose of Empowering novice academics for student success Wearing different hats is building the capacity of novice teachers and trainers to play an influential role in increasing student success throughput

Fraud and Education Harold J. Noah, Max A. Eckstein, 2001 Fraud and Education gives an informative overview of cheating in examinations in the U S and foreign countries and of the current state of fraud in education and research It differs however from many popular treatises on the same subject in that it is not intended as a blanket condemnation of American or foreign education Instead of assigning blame for the prevalence of fraud the authors point to such factors as growth in the number of persons engaged in education and research pressures on individuals to succeed improvements in communications especially the Internet and e mail and in techniques of document reproduction
