Reprint of the original first published in 1874      Claude Lévi-Strauss Christopher Johnson,2003-02-27 L vi Strauss is one of the major intellectual figures of the twentieth century His theory of structuralism has been influential not only in anthropology but across the entire field of the humanities and social sciences This book looks at the formative period of his career from the 1940s to the early 1960s where he attempts to define both his own place in anthropology and the place of anthropology in the wider context of the human sciences in France Through a close reading of key texts Christopher Johnson provides an introduction to key aspects of L vi Strauss thought at the same time posing more general questions concerning the construction of theory and the different modes of conceptualization that inform theory Johnson looks at the ideological and autobiographical dimensions of L vi Strauss work and demonstrates how the impact of structuralism as an intellectual movement has clearly been greater than the sum of its theoretical parts      Drawing Pedagogy in Modern France Shana

For many of us playthings and images from those days continue to resonate Rereading a swathe of modern and contemporary sustained theoretical exploration of topics such as surrealist temporality toys play nostalgia memory and 20th century constructions of the child The result is an entirely new approach to the surrealist tradition via its engagement with childish things Providing what the author describes as a long history of surrealism this book plots a trajectory from surrealism itself to the art of the 1980s and 1990s through to the present day It addresses a range of figures from Marcel Duchamp Giorgio de Chirico Max Ernst Hans Bellmer Joseph Cornell and Helen Levitt at one end of the spectrum to Louise Bourgeois Eduardo Paolozzi Claes Oldenburg Susan Hiller Martin Sharp Helen Chadwick Mike Kelley and Jeff Koons at the other Language Choice in Enlightenment Europe Vladislav Rjéoutski, Willem Frijhoff, 2025-10-01 This multinational collection of essays challenges the traditional image of a monolingual Ancient Regime in Enlightenment Europe both East and West Its archival research explores the important role played by selective language use in social life and in the educational provisions in the early constitution of modern society A broad range of case studies show how language was viewed and used symbolically by social groups ranging from the nobility to the peasantry to develop express and mark their identities Freud Frederick Crews, 2025-06-25 From the master of Freud debunkers the book that definitively puts an end to the myth of psychoanalysis and its creator Since the 1970s Sigmund Freud's scientific reputation has been in an accelerating tailspin but nonetheless the idea persists that some of his contributions were visionary discoveries of lasting value Now drawing on rarely consulted archives Frederick Crews has assembled a great volume of evidence that reveals a surprising new Freud a man who blundered tragically in his dealings with patients who in fact never cured anyone who promoted cocaine as a miracle drug capable of curing a wide range of diseases and who advanced his career through falsifying case histories and betraying the mentors who had helped him to rise The legend has persisted Crews shows thanks to Freud's fictive self invention as a master detective of the psyche and later through a campaign of censorship and falsification conducted by his followers A monumental biographical study and a slashing critique Freud The Making of an Illusion will stand as the last word on one of the most significant and contested figures of the twentieth century A Complete and Universal English Dictionary James Barclay, 1799 Language and Language Behavior Abstracts, 1982 Fifty Years of Great Art Writing, 2018 A collection of remarkable essays on modern and contemporary art commissioned across half a century by London's Hayward Gallery Literacy and Identity in Early Medieval Ireland Elva Johnston, 2013-08-15 Much of our knowledge of early medieval Ireland comes from a rich literature written in a variety of genres and in two languages Irish and Latin Who wrote this literature and what role did they play within society What did the introduction and expansion of literacy mean in a culture where the vast majority of the population continued to be non literate How did literacy operate in and intersect with the oral world Was literacy a key element in the formation and articulation of communal and elite senses of identity This book addresses these issues in the first full interdisciplinary examination of the Irish literate elite and their social contexts between ca 400 1000 AD It considers the role played by Hiberno Latin authors the expansion of vernacular literacy and the key place of monasteries within the literate landscape Also examined are the crucial intersections between literacy and
