Wayne Thiebaud Lectures on Art and Drawing Wayne Thiebaud, 2018-02-23 For four decades the legendary painter Wayne Thiebaud taught passionately at the University of California, Davis, until retiring aged 70. As a teacher, Thiebaud had introduced thousands of undergraduates to the delights of great art and art making. Thiebaud still refers to exercises he would assign his students when explaining the dynamics of his own works. Here collected for the first time are student records of Thiebaud's famous lectures which include: Beginning Drawing, Descriptive Drawing, Life Drawing, Beginning Painting, Printmaking and Theory and Criticism. These lecture notes are apart from everything else: delightful and vibrant. They are concrete and efficient, not the wanderings of an imported academic star who takes class off early to get to the tennis courts.
