Dance Jitters

Sophia sat in class with her mouth quivering. She was upset because she was afraid to go to the school dance later that week. She was anxious because she didn't know how to dance and was worried that she would embarrass herself by falling down in front of everyone.

Her best friend Katie noticed Sophia's worried face and asked, "What's wrong?" Sophia answered, "I don't know how to dance, and the school dance is this weekend." Katie offered to teach Sophia how to dance after school, and they practiced for an hour each day at Katie's house. Katie was very patient and gave Sophia step-by-step dancing instructions. They practiced until their feet hurt! By the end of the week, Sophia had become a beautiful dancer.

After a week's worth of hard work, Sophia was able to surprise everyone at the dance. She danced every dance and had the time of her life.
