South African Labour Bulletin ,2004 Getting Skills Right Community Education and Training in South Africa
OECD,2019-03-14 Adult learning systems play a crucial role in helping people adapt to the changing world of work and develop relevant skills Community Education and Training has been brought forward as a possible way to foster adult learning in South Africa especially among disadvantaged groups South Africa African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick,James Thurlow,2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , E-Governance in Africa, from Theory to Action Gianluca Misuraca,2007 Integrating information and communication technologies ICTs into governance processes can greatly enhance the delivery of public services to all citizens ICT integration will not only improve the performance of governance systems it will also transform relationships amongst stakeholders thereby influencing policymaking processes and regulatory frameworks In the developing world however the potential of ICTs for effective governance remains largely unexplored and unexploited This book presents the context theory and current thinking on the interaction between ICTs and local governance particularly in Africa It discusses the shift from OC governmentOCO to OC e governance OCO describes the role of local level authorities and presents the benefits and limitations of introducing ICTs in government operations Case studies from Ghana Senegal South Africa and Uganda describe local governance ICTs projects executed by civil society organizations academic institutions and government authorities Drawing from the findings in these case studies and from the introductory research and original conceptual framework the book presents a series of conclusions and recommendation on the future of effective ICTs use for better governance and improved economic development at the local level This book will be of interest to professionals practitioners and policy advisors at local and national government levels in developing countries particularly in Africa international organizations staff bilateral aid agencies international financial institutions civil society organizations and private sector researchers academics students and professors of public administration and governance in Africa and throughout the world The National Skills Development Handbook 2007/8 ,200? Youth Development in South Africa Botshabelo Maja, Busani Ngcaweni, 2023-10-03 Youth Development in South Africa Harnessing the Demographic Dividend is a compelling snapshot of thirty years of South Africa s democratic dispensation and what it has meant for the youth of the country as well as how its demographic dividend can be harnessed for a fairer society in the future South Africa Yearbook ,2009 Finweek ,2006-05 SA Country Risk Rating ,2001 Financial Mail ,2006 Towards a Ten Year Review South Africa. Presidency. Policy Co-ordination and Advisory Services, Government Communication & Information System (South Africa), 2003 The attainment of democracy in 1994 presented government with twin challenges significant institutional transformation and at the same time introducing new policies in line with the democratic Constitution Secondly the Government had to deal with the legacy of Apartheid within South Africa whilst at the same time facing new challenges of integrating the country in a rapidly changing global environment Since 1994 the State has deliberately set out systematically and deliberately to dismantle Apartheid social relations and create a democratic society based on the principle of equity non racialism and non sexism The Towards a Ten Year Review was overseen by a steering group of Ministers and received inputs from individual departments in government The project outputs were reviewed by the Directors general DG clusters The Review is organised on comprehensive research conducted within and outside of government and attempts to evaluate the extent to which government has achieved its objectives in the past decade More modestly it explores the possible policy permutations for the next decade in the context of the imperatives of the Constitution and the challenges of reconstruction and development Approaches to Reduce Youth Poverty in Cape Town, South Africa ,2003 A National Integrated Black Economic Empowerment Strategy Black Economic Empowerment Commission (South Africa), 2001 Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa.
