Lectures on the Parables of Our Saviour (Classic Reprint) Edward N. Kirk,2015-07-17 Excerpt from Lectures on the Parables of Our Saviour The parables spoken by our Lord have always and deservedly attracted a peculiar share of attention All the utterances of him who spake as never man spake are wonderful But the pious readers of the Scriptures have ever felt a peculiar charm in these simple unfoldings of the sublimest truths Scientific men have labored to define the parables but have generally failed by aiming too high The popular notion of a parable is that it is a fictitious narrative illustrating a religious principle like that of the Prodigal Son And yet all persons have admitted among the parables many statements or comparisons which in no degree partake of the narrative form The word Parable is employed in nearly fifty places in the New Testament and in various specific senses Its generic notion is simply that of comparison or similitude The English translators have rendered it by comparison as in Mark iv 30 figure Heb ix 9 proverb Luke iv 23 and parable Regarding the parables then as strictly mere figures more or less expanded and more or less explained about one hundred of them occur in the discourses of our Lord to only twenty two of which is the name of parable applied by the sacred writers About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
